The Principles and Duties of Christianity... In English and Manks (Coyre Sodjey), by Thomas Wilson, 1707.

The Principles and Duties of Christianity, being a Further Instruction for such as have learned the Church-Catechism, For the use of the Diocese of Man. In English and Manks. Together with Short and Plain Directions and Prayers for Particular Persons, For Families, For the Lord’s Day, For the Lords Supper, For the Time of Sickness, &c. By Thomas, Lord Bishop of Sodore and Man, London: Benjamin Motte, 1707, was, as the author announces in the preface, the first book published in Manx. A facsimile with a brief introduction by R. L. Thomson was published by Scolar Press in 1972. Our intention in this edition is to make the original text, in Manx and English, available not only for reading, but more especially for digital searching, to assist in the task of linguistic study of the Manx language of the Classical period (c. 1700-1850).

The two parts of the publication: The Principles and Duties of Christianity... and Short and Plain Directions... are printed as if for separate books, each with its own title page and preface (the first in English only, the second with the Manx version alongside), and with separate page numbering. Short and Plain Directions... also has a Contents page after its title page.

The 1707 publication is typographically quite complex and ambitious, exploiting roman, italic and black-letter, making use of many different font sizes, drop capitals and a variety of page layouts, including Bible references in the margins. In respect of this achievement of the printer’s art, and in honour of Coyre Sodjey as the first Manx printed book, we have tried to imitate the original typography as far as is practical.¹ To maintain searchability of the text, though, we have retained long s (ſ, ſ) only in those few parts that are in English only: the title pages to Principles... and Short and Plain Directions..., the author’s preface to Principles, and the Contents page of Short and Plain Directions... In Principles... the parallel Manx and English texts were arranged with the Manx next to the gutter, that is, on the left on the recto and on the right on the verso. In Short and Plain Directions..., however, the Manx is always on the left. For practical reasons, we have placed the Manx on the left throughout. The default font style for the Manx is roman, and, for the English, italic, except in the preface to Short and Plain Directions..., where it is the other way round. We retain the original distribution of styles. The start of each page in the original is indicated here with the page number in [ ], except that where a word was split across a page, we move the page number so as to precede the word.

We indicate orthographic oddities with [sic], or [i.e.], generally in footnotes; but in very obvious cases of substituted or missing letters, or transpositions of letters, we make a correction in the text, using italic in roman text and roman in italic text.

The English text makes very extensive use of alternation between italic and roman; and, as was normal at that period, there is also extensive capitalization, mostly of nouns, but at times of adjectives and verbs too. One might have expected all this to be imitated in the Manx text, but, in fact, in the Manx both devices are used much more sparingly, though still to a significant degree.

The orthography used by Wilson’s Manx translator(s) is to a very large extent that which became standard later in the 18th century, in Bible translation, the Book of Common Prayer, catechisms and sermons. Where they differ, Coyrle Sodjej is usually simpler, with fewer superfluous letters: thus initial /l/- is rarely found, so we have leid (lheid), liasaog (lhiasaog), liat (lihat), lie (hilie), liettal (lhiettal), liggey (lighgey); -eea- implies two syllables, so we have Creesteeagh, gimmeeagh, etc., but jeaghyn (jeaaghyn), gevaree ~ gevaree (geevaree); other ‘simpler’ spellings are: baas (baase), callit (caillit), cheel (cheeill), coal (coayl), deartey (deayrtey), deney (deiney), feasley (feaysley), foar (foayr), foas (foays), freall (freayll), geaisthagh (geaishthagh), gol (goll), janoo (jannoo), loart (loayrt), meigh (meiygh), raaidyn (raaidyn), reyn (rheynn), seihl (seihll), tallo ~ tallow (thalloo), treshteil (treishteil); tregeil ~ treggeil is much more frequent than the modern treigeil, though this is also found. Homophones are not always distinguished, or are distinguished differently from later texts: the form na ‘than’ is not used, but only ny; un ‘one’ is not used, but only yn; dy is always ‘thee’ or ‘thy’, but di is also used in this sense; ass is always ‘out of’, but as is also often used (= as ‘and’); insofar as ‘he’, ‘his’ ‘it’ are distinguished, eh is nearly always ‘it’, e is usually ‘he/him’ (sometimes ‘it’), ‘his/its’ is usually e, but sometimes y. Final /a/ is usually spelt -ey as in later Manx, but occasionally -eh, as in ‘Coyrle Sodjeh’ that appears on the first page of Manx. After ny (feminine genitive definite article), ny (plural article) and dy (adverbial particle) h-is usually, though not always, added to vowel-initial words, e.g. Reil ny Haglish ‘Church Government’, Credjue ny Hostylyn ‘The Apostles’ Creed’, dy harryltagh ‘willingly’.

A number of spellings represent pronunciations which are archaic relative to the Manx of the Bible, including lack of voicing of the affricate in medial /lʲtʲ/, as in foilchin ‘faults’ (later foyljyn), Ard-valchyn ‘cities’ (later ard-valjyn); maskey ‘among’ for later mastey (Irish i measc); foshtil for later foshil (Irish foscail); chooish and chooilleen for later wheesh and whilleen (Irish a choibhéis and a chomhlinen); eearree without prosthetic /j-/, alongside yeearee (Irish iarraidh); and maihter for mainshter, in which the later n shows development of an excrescent nasal consonant after a nasal vowel (or is intended to represent the nasality of the vowel).

The grammar and vocabulary of Coyrle Sodjej are broadly similar to those of texts from later in the century, though some ‘older’ usages predominate, that later became more variable or obsolete. Thus, non-finite verb phrases (other than the periphrastic verb forms with ve ‘be’) with transitive verbs almost always display the ‘included object’ construction, as in the first sentence of the text: Ta currym aym mee-hehene y yano arloo, lit. ‘I have a duty to make myself ready’.

One characteristic feature in the text that becomes less usual later is the use of dyn ‘in order to’ ... pl. pronoun’, e.g. eshyh hooar baase dyn sauvail shin ‘he who died to save us’. A similar form rarely found later is dyn with plural pronoun object in a clause with ve, as in Vel nyn Gredjue dyn gianley dy yeaghyn dooin hene? lit. ‘does our belief oblige us to watch over ourselves?’, or yn Spyrryd Noo ta dyn nianoo arloo son Niau ‘the Holy Spirit that makes us ready for Heaven’. Parallel to the latter is the use of dy with a singular pronominal direct object in periphrastic constructions with ve as in Jee ... ta dy dy1 chuirrey ‘God who invites you’, cha vel e dy yanooe eh ‘he does not do it’, adsyn ta dy hroggal eh ‘those who build it’. And then, also, dy marking ‘object extraction’ in a relative clause: janoo ny T’e dy harey ‘do what He orders’, ny Vondeishyn ta shin dy ghedyn lioirish ‘the benefits we receive thereby’. Such usages, along with the ‘included object’ construction, mean that the gerund (the label we use for the verb-noun form that displays initial g- when the stem begins with a vowel) of transitive verbs is rather less frequently found than in later Manx.

As do later Manx texts, Coyrle Sodjey displays a certain amount of variation in initial consonant mutation. It is worth pointing out, though, that such deviation as there is from the ‘rules’ of lenition is far from evenly distributed among leniting contexts and lenitable consonants. Failure of lenition is hardly ever found in verb forms, or after possessives my, dty, e, for example. On the contrary, deviation is strongly focused on one corner of the space of possible errors. Of some 83 cases of ‘under-lenition’, 48 appear in the context: velar initial consonants (/kl/, /kʃ/, /ɡ/ /ɡʃ/), in prepositional phrases with the definite article, such as fo’n coadey, son y Kionnaght reesht, jeh’n Grayse spyrrydoil, gys y gialdyn. The two criteria taken separately: velar consonants, and prepositional phrases, account for all but seven of the 83 ‘lenition failures’.

We make these few observations here about the language of Coyrle Sodjey to hint at the value there might be for Manx studies in making a more detailed study of the grammar and idiom of this text.

The Lord’s-Day.

By THOMAS, Lord BISHOP of Sodore and Man.

LONDON: Printed by Benj. Motte. 1707.
TO THE

CLERGY

My Brethren;

WHEN I lately advised with you concerning the most likely Methods of bringing the People, under our Charge, to a better Knowledge and Sense of their Duty, and amongst other Constitutions, This was agreed upon, and soon after past into a Law; That all Persons intending to Marry, should first (if they have not already done it) fit themselves for Confirmation and the Lord’s-Supper: Every one of You, did very solemnly promise his best Endeavours, to make this Order useful to the Ends for which it was designed.

What I promised at that time, I have, by God’s Assistance, finished, A Plain Instruction in the Principles and Duties of Christianity, suited as near as possibly I could, to the Capacities and Circumstances of the Souls committed to our Care, together with Private and Family Prayers, very much wanted in this Diocese.
All which are here translated into Manks, and, I hope, as well as can be expected, considering that this is the Firſt Book published in this Language.

They that have had the Trouble of Translating it, are very Sensible that the Liberty which every Man takes of Writing after his own Way, will expose them to some Cenſure: But then he muſt be a very ill Man, who, for fo little Reaſon, will go about to hinder fo much Good as is intended by this Book, since this would have been the Case, whoever ſhould have undertaken it.

The good Ends proposed are these:

That People ſhould know their Duty, and their Buſiness in the World; That they ſhould learn to pray for what they want, and they that have Families, ſhould ſet their Children and Servants an Example of Piety, that the Lord God may dwell among us, and continue to us the Blessings of Peace and Unity in Church and State, which we have fo long enjoyed.

Now though I have taken what Care I could to pursue these Ends, yet I cannot hope to see any great Good come of this Work, without Your Assistance. Into Your Hands therefore, I put these Books, intreating you, for our Great Master’s fake, the Lord Jeſus Chrifṭ, that you will endeavour to make them as useful as may be.

Firſt; By Reading distinctly, and in Order, one Section every Lord’s-Day, after you have Catechised the Youth, according to the Canon and Rubrick, enforced by a late Law.
Secondly; By giving these Books to no Persons, without first shewing them the Use they are to make of them, and laying them under strict Obligations of Reading the Instructions, and of Using the Devotions.

Thirdly; By taking such Seasonable Opportunities, as the Providence of God shall put into your Hands, of Recommending these Duties to all sorts of Persons.

For Instance. When you Visit the Sick, you have a fair Occasion offered you, of enquiring How they pray to God, and of laying them under Promises of performing that Duty daily, if God restores them to Health.

When you shall have Married a Couple, it will be a very proper time of putting the Devotions into their Hands, and of making them sensible, how much their present and future Welfare depends upon Serving God daily, so that beginning well, they may never neglect this necessary Duty.

Persons under the Censures of the Church, under Afflictions, in Poverty, asking either your Favour or your Charity, will lend an Ear to that Advice, which at other times they would little regard.

These are Words spoken in due Season, and if We, of This Diocese, don’t study for these Opportunities of doing Good, we are more inexculpable than others, who have Controversies to take up much of their time, while our Duty is only to shew our People the Way they should go, and to go before them.

Happy were it for us, if our Perfect Uniformity were the Effect of our Piety, but it is plainly owing to the good Providence of GOD, who having denied us greater Means of Learning, hath mercifully kept us from Divisions.

But shall we be more remiss, because we have not People of other Persuasions to Observe and Censure us? God forbid, rather let us consider, that there are indeed many Eyes upon us, to blame us when we walk not worthy of our great Privileges: They that contend for Uniformity, will be grieved when they see so little Real Piety promoted by it; and they who unanimously passed our Constitutions into Laws, in hopes that some great Good would follow, since the Clergy seemed so desirous not to stand charged with the Sins of the present or growing Age, will be sadly disappointed, if we neglect to put these Laws in Execution.

Let Us then observe our own Rules, and when it appears, that we our selves are in good Earnest, others will learn to be so too.

And to provoke your Zeal, as well as to awaken you, I must inform you, That God has stir’d up the Spirits of many to Oppose that Ignorance, Indifference, Profaneness, and Infidelity that everywhere abound. To this End, many Great and Good Men have formed SOCIETIES, some, To Propagate the Gospel in Foreign Parts; others, To promote Christian-Knowledge and Piety at Home; others, To punisb Profanenes and Immorality.

And all these Societies have had a Visible Blessing and Success; Missionaries are sent and maintain’d abroad; Charity-Schools are set up in many Places of England; Notorious Offenders are brought to Shame and Amendment.
Now God forbid that We should be altogether unconcern’d under these Dispenstions. Here is a Plain Way laid before you; let but every Clergy-Man conscientiously Observe the Constitutions which he has so lately signed, and, by God’s Blessing, we shall see a Change for the Better, and another Face of Religion.

If People are hindred from the Lord’s Supper, and from Marriage, until they can give some Account, according to their Capacities, of God, of Themselves, and of their Duty, all Sorts of People will strive to learn more or less, and Parents will for very Shame send their Children to be instructed, that they may be Confirmed, and qualified for a Married and a Christian Life.

Now that what I have here prepared for these Ends, may not be in vain, I shall continue to Beg God’s Blessing upon This Work, and shall not fail to Beseech Him to Prosper your Labours, and Mine amongst you, while it shall please Him to continue me

Your unworthy Bishop,

And affectionate Friend and Brother,

THO. Sodor. & Man.
A farther INSTRUCTION
For such as have learned the Church-Catechism.

Q. Having Notice to prepare my self for Confirmation, I beg your Assistance, that I may know what I am going about, and what is expected from me?

A. I will gladly assist you; and, if indeed you desire to save your Soul, I will instruct you after so plain a Manner, that you need not perish for want of Knowledge.

Q. I pray then let me know, why I am called to Confirmation?

A. That the Church may be satisfied you are a Christian out of Choice, and not only because you was born in a Christian country.

Q. Why must the Church be satisfied of this?

A. Because the Church is a Society of Persons professing to live in the Fear of God, and expecting God’s Judgments, if any of their Body do live in an open Defiance of his Laws, without Rebuke.

And therefore, for better Security, all its Members are openly to declare their full Purpose of Living as becometh the Gospel of Christ, which is the Law they are to be governed by.
Q. Is there any farther Benefit that I may hope for, by going to be Confirmed?

A. Yes; you may expect, from that time, that God will daily increase his Graces in you, if you heartily desire them: For the Bishop, with whom is the hand of God in all that he doth in the name of Christ, prayeth for you; and by laying his Hand upon you, doth certify you of God’s Favour and good Will towards you.

And then if you know that this solemn way of laying on of hands, was from the Apostles of Jesus Christ, you will have Reason to hope for much Good from it; and to neglect it, where it may be had, is to despise God’s Mercy and Favours.

Q. I would therefore prepare my self for Confirmation, not only because the Church requires it, but because it will be my Advantage to do so.

A. It will most certainly: for the Christian Profession, which you are going to take upon you, is the only Thing which can make you easie here, and safe hereafter.

For it teacheth us, that tho’ we are miserable, sinful, Helpless Creatures, tho’ we have many and Powerful Enemies; yet by the Favour of God, we may be Safe and Happy.

For by it we learn, that God desireth our Welfare, and that he is able to do for us more than we can ask or think.

It teacheth us what Service God requires of us; how we may make our Peace, when we have offended him by our Sins; how Dangerous it is to lead a careless Life; and how happy God will make all such as serve him to the best of their Knowledge.

Q. Why then should I not take upon my self the Christian Profession?
A. Only take with you the Advice of Christ. Consider seriously what you are going to undertake.

Whether you can purpose in your Heart, to resist the Temptations of the Devil, the World, and the Flesh, which will all endeavour to draw you from God.

Q. Indeed, when I consider that all Christians have promised to do this, and yet too few do ever think of what must come hereafter, I cannot but be afraid for myself, least I should grow as careless as many others?
A. It is for this Reason you are now called upon, to see whether you will take up a sober Resolution of serving God. And to make you concerned in this Matter, consider seriously, That we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ. That as you spend this short Life well or ill, you must be happy or miserable for ever.

Q. This should make one serious indeed; and, therefore I do entreat you to give me a true account of my Condition?

A. Understand, then, that you are a Creature subject to sin and to misery.

That God has permitted you to be born in this Condition, that you may see the sad Effects of forsaking him.

And that finding you are unable to Help your self, you may ever be obliged to look up unto him for Help, which, at your Baptism, he hath Covenanted to give you.

Now to prove you, whether you will, indeed, live in a constant Dependance upon God, he hath permitted the Devil to tempt you, that is, to endeavour to draw you from your Duty.

But, at the same time, you have this faithful Promise, that his good Spirit shall ever be with you, to defend and Strengthen you, provided you seek to him, put your whole Trust in him, and do not grieve him by a wicked Life.

To encourage you to serve God, whatever good thing you do by his Assistance, he will graciously reward it as if it were done by your self only.

But if you shall despise God’s Assistance, and, trusting to your own Reason and Strength, fall into a wicked Life, the good Spirit of God will forsake you, and you will then be governed by evil Spirits, and be made very miserable.

Q. From what you say, I understand that we are in this Life in a State of Trial and Danger, that we may be obliged to keep close to God, which, if we resolve to do, then we are in no Danger at all?
A. Very true; and observe also, that, by the Mercy of Christ, we are in a safer Condition than even our First Parents were; they were, indeed, created upright, but they fell: we are, by reason of their Fall, born in Weakness, but have an Almighty God, ever ready to support us, and if we, thro’ our own Fault, do slip, we have a Mediatour with God, ever ready to make our Peace.

Q. Blessed be God, that it is so well with us. Since then this is my Condition, I pray, what must I do to be safe?

A. First, you must resolve to oppose all Temptations to sin, which will oblige you to Mortification and Self-denial. You must believe, and lay to heart, what God hath made known in his holy Word, and especially the Promises and Threatnings of the Gospel of Christ.

You must resolve to keep the Commandments, which teach you your Duty to God, and to your Neighbour.

And because you cannot do this of your self, you must purpose at all times to seek to God, by Prayer, for his Assistance.

And lastly; since it is meer Favour in God, that he receives us into his Covenant, and promises us eternal Life, you must thankfully receive, and use the Means of Grace which he hath appointed, namely, Baptism and the Lord’s Supper.

These are the chief Heads of our Duty, which you may understand, be you never so unlearned, if you will set your Heart upon it, and pray to God for Help.

Q. These have I already learned in the Catechism I have been taught ?

A. You have so ; and in that you have Learning sufficient, if you do but know how to make use of it in the Course of your Life ; which I shall assist you to do after a very plain way.

But first, go and fall down upon your Knees, and beg of God to give you Grace, and an understanding Heart, in the following Words,

S. James 1. 5. If any of you lack Wisdom, let him ask of God, and it shall be given him.

The PRAYE R.

O GOD, the Fountain of all Wisdom, we most humbly beseech thee to enlighten our Minds, that we may come to the Knowledge of thee, and of thy Goodness in Jesus Christ. Give us a serious an Understanding, and a Religious Heart, that as we grow in Years, we may grow in Grace. Bless all the Means of Salvation which thou hast afforded us, and especially this Instruction, that it may sink into our Hearts, and bring forth in us the Fruit of good Living, to the Honour and Praise of thy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
S E C T. II.

Q. What is your Name?
A. N. or M.

Q. Who gave you that Name?
A. My Godfathers and Godmothers in my Baptism, wherein I was made, a Member of Christ, a Child of God, and an Inheritor of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Q. Pray what was my Condition before Baptism?
A. Being born of sinful Parents, you brought the Seeds of Sin into the World with you. And you see what are the Fruits of that Seed, by the abominable Wickedness Men can be guilty of, when they are left to themselves.

Q. You mean some desperate People only?
A. Do not deceive your self. We are all by Nature subject to every Abomination, and if God by his Grace, or his Providence, hath kept us from those greater Crimes, we must thank Him, and not our selves.

For besides our own corrupt Hearts, which would lead us to Sin, there are evil Spirits ever ready to tempt us to Mischief, and of our selves we have no Power to escape their Malice.

Q. Is it not a great Unhappiness to be born with Inclinations to sin, and to be set in the midst of such powerful Enemies?

A. There is no doubt of it: But then the Mercy of God has turned all this to your greater Advantage.

For, now you see plainly the Danger you are in; you see what a sad thing Sin is, and what it will bring Men to; you see that you have no Power to help your self, but that you must altogether depend upon God, and be governed by Him; which, if you resolve to be, He has prepared for you such good Things, as you could never have deserv’d, tho’ you had lived in Innocency all your Days.

Q. What did move God to have such a Regard for us?

A. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, hath, by his Death, made our Peace with his Father, upon Condition that we believe, repent, and turn to God, and do Works meet for Repentance, which is called the Covenant of Grace, because it is offered unto us of God’s free Favour without our deserving.

Now all such as accept this gracious Offer, are baptised and sanctified by the Holy Ghost: That is, they are taken from under the Government of Satan, and, having the Seeds of Holiness sown in their Hearts, they become Members of Christ, sons of God, and Heirs of Heaven.

Q. What is it to be a Member of Christ?

A. It is to be a Member of his Church, which is called the Body of Christ, because Christ, as the Head, governeth it by his Laws, and preserveth it by his Spirit.
Q. Cre’n vondeish ta liorish y ve Olt jeh Aglish Chreest?

Q. What Benefit is it to be a Member of the Church of Christ?
A. You have hereby a Right to many great and precious Promises.

The Promise of Peace with God, of Pardon upon your Repentance; The Promise of God’s good Spirit to guide and defend you. The Promise of eternal Life, and all the Means of Grace necessary to obtain it. And lastly, the Promise of Christ’s powerful Presence with your spiritual Pastours, unto the World’s end.

Q. It is then a great Unhappiness to be out of the Church?
A. It is a most dreadful Thing. For whoever is so, whether on Account of a wicked Life or wicked Principles, or by Separating himself without Cause, from the true and regularly establish’d Church where he dwells, which is called Schism, such a Person becometh again a Subject of Satan, the Prince of this World, that is, of all such as are not in Covenant of God.

The first Christians were so sensible of this, that their boldest Sinners had neither Ease nor Comfort under the Church’s Censures, but underwent any Shame or Trouble, that they might be restored to Communion.

A. God himself hath judged this Case, by the fearful Punishment inflicted upon the first Disturbers of Church Government.

And it being generally the effect of Pride, the cause of much Contention and Uncharitableness, encouraging Offenders, and binding Discipline, it must needs be a great Sin.

Q. What Reason have I to believe that I am a Member of the Church to which so many Favours are promised ?

A. You have had the Blessing of being baptised by Persons sent, and rightly ordained for that end.

And so long as you continue obedient to your spiritual Governors, the Bishop and Pastours of Christ’s Flock, so long you are a Member of Christ’s Church, and have a Title to all the Promises made to it.

But to be a true and lively Member of his Body, you must be careful to do what be bath commanded. For if we say that we have Fellowship with him, and walk in Darkness, (i.e. lead a wicked Life) we lie, [and] do not the Truth.

Q. What is it to be a Child of God ?

A. It is to have such Privilege with God, as a Son bath with his Father. This is called Adoption, by which you have an Assurance, that God, for Christ’s sake, will overlook the untowardness of your Nature, pity your Infirmities ; favourably hear your Requests,

A. It is to have a Title to the Joys and Glories of Heaven, and to be put into a sure way of attaining them. It is to have the Word of God for your Security, and the good Angels of God to minister unto you ; so that it will be your own Fault, if

A. You can lament your own Unworthiness, and pray to God to pity you; You can use the Graces he bestoweth upon you, and be thankful for his Favours: You can do your best, and his Goodness will expect no more.

Q. What use am I to make of this part of my Catechism?

A. Let it bring to your remembrance that you are a Christian. That you have a New Name, and New Powers given you, on purpose, that you may become a New Creature.

If you are indeed a Child of God, you will think what a dutiful Child ought to do. You will fear his Displeasure, and trust in his Love; You will run to him for what you want, and be thankful for what he gives, and you will own his Affection when he corrects, as well as when he smiles upon you.

If you look for an Inheritance in Heaven, your Thoughts will be often there. For where your Treasure is, there will your Heart be also.

And you will not be too eager for the Things of this World; You will neither be much afraid of its Troubles, nor too fond of its Vanities, remembering that both will soon have an End.

And as ever you hope to go to Heaven, you will endeavour to fit your self for that glorious Place; Remembring, that without Holiness no man shall see the Lord.

The sure Promise of God will not suffer you to despair: And the Joy that is set before you will encourage you to press forwards.

You will be thankfull to God for calling you to this State of Salvation; and gladly undertake the Conditions he requires of you.

What these Conditions are, is what next you should think of. But first, let us take words of Praise, and with a thankful Heart say as followeth.

PADJE R.

Q. My Godfathers and Godmothers did promise for me, That I should renounce the Devil and all his Works.

Pray make me understand the Meaning of this.

A. You must know, that the Devil has a Kingdom, and Subjects, and Servants in this World, as well as Christ has his.

All that he can prevail upon to forsake the Commands of God, and to follow him and his ways, are his Servants.

All that oppose his Temptations, and resolve to be governed by the Laws of God, are the Servants of Christ, who came into the World to destroy the works of the Devil.

So that whoever will be a Servant of Christ, must Renounce the Devil and all his Works.

For that wicked Spirit will endeavour, by all ways, to draw you from the Service of God.

Q. Pray instruct me what to do, that I may not follow, nor be lead by him.

A. The Directions I give you shall be short and plain, and suited to your Condition.

Let this be ever in your Mind, that Sin is the worst of all Evils; for all other Evils will have an end, at farthest, when you die, but Sin will make you miserable for ever.

Remember that you are naturally inclin’d to sin, that the Devil will tempt you to it, and that God only can save you.

And then, You will never trust in your own Strength, but in the Living God.

To him you will constantly pray for Help; and if you draw nigh to him, he will draw nigh to you.

And yet, you must not expect God’s Assistance, without using your own endeavours; for that is to tempt the Lord.

If Sinners entice you, you must not consent unto them: for they are the Devil’s Instruments.

If you fall into evil Company, you must get out of it immediately, and not walk in the way with them, lest God forsake you.

You must have nothing to do with the Devils own Servants, as all Witches and Charmers are, and are therefore an Abomination to the Lord.

And you must, especially, pray that you may not fall into the Devil’s own Sins, which are Pride, and Revenge, and Backbiting, and Lying.

And lastly, When the Holy Spirit of God puts into your Mind good Desires, or checks you for doing ill, you must obey the Voice of God, and be will love you, and dwell with you, and preserve you from your ghostly Enemy.

A. It is so. And God in his Providence often suffers Men to fall into great Sins, to humble them, and to shew them to themselves, that they may depend upon him only.

Q. They promised— That I should renounce the Pomps and Vanity of this wicked World, and all the sinful Lusts of the Flesh.

What is meant by this ?

A. That you should not set your heart upon such things as are apt to make you love this World better than the next, for this is not the World you were made for.

Q. Is it possible for one to love any thing better than Heaven ?

A. What a Man thinks of most, that be loveth best to be sure.

Now, there are many Things which make a shew and appearance of Happiness, and are therefore called Pomps, because they draw Men’s Eyes and Affections towards them, and yet they are but Vanity, and cannot make us Happy.

As shoh’n oyr ta Berchys cha dangeragh dy vel Yeesey Creest er hoilshagh dy vel eh feer doillee son our selves; all which a Christian ought to Renounce.

Q. Must a Christian renounce all Pleasures?

A. There are Pleasures which a Christian ought never to be acquainted with; concerning which, the Scripture saith, That no Whoremonger, nor Drunkard, nor unclean Person, hath any Inheritance in the Kingdom of Christ and of God. However tempting these Pleasures may be, you have but this Choice, you must deny yourself, or be for ever damned.

And even innocent Pleasures, you will not set your Heart upon them, nor let them have too much of your time, if you often remember the Words of Christ. Wo unto you that laugh now, who spend your Life in Ease and Pleasures, for ye shall lament and weep.

Consider that a Christian is in this Life, fitting himself for Heaven; Now, it is impossible you should mind that Business, if you are too well pleased with what you find here.

This is the Reason why Afflictions are necessary, and why God sends them. To wean us from these Vanities, which we are too apt to dote on, and to make us think of, and provide for a better Life.

And this is the Reason why Riches are so dangerous, that Jesus Christ hath affirmed, It is very hard for a rich Man to be a good Christian.

Q. Why are Riches so dangerous, and to be renounced?

A. Because they bring great Temptations along with them. They tempt Men to forget God; To think too well of, and to trust in themselves; To Lord it over their Inferiours; to live in Slothfulness, and without any honest Employment; And to make Provision for the Flesh to fulfil the Lusts thereof. All which things strongly incline Men to prefer this Life to a future, and to forget that they depend upon God.

Besides Riches are attended with Cares which are apt to choak the good Seed, the Spirit of God sowes in our Hearts.

Q. Must then every Man who would save his Soul, renounce the Thoughts of Riches?

A. Riches may be used to good Purposes, the Apostle tells you how. 1 Tim. 6. 17, 18. But they are dangerous things, and you ought neither to desire, nor enjoy them too eagerly.

Q. What Advice will you give me, that I may not do so?

A. That you may not endeavour by unjust Ways to better your Condition, remember the words of Christ. What will it profit a Man if he shall gain the whole World, and lose own Soul?

2 [i.e. nyn earree]
To moderate your Desires, consider, that the more you have, the more you must account for. To make you contented, you must know, That Men are not happy, because they have a great deal, but because God gives them Power to enjoy what they have, be that more or less.

That the Favours of God may not tempt you to Idleness, remember, That Slothfulness casteth into a deep Sleep; That is, It makes Men insensible of what concerns the next World, and in this World covers them with Raggs.

And lastly, If you let no worldly Business hinder you from serving God daily, it will keep in your Mind, a constant sense of your Dependence upon him, for the Blessings of this World, and of the World to come.

Q. I must now desire you to tell me, What is that Pride of Life, which a Christian must renounce?

A. It is an eager desire of being like those that are above us; which is the cause of many Evils both in our selves, and others.

It tempts us to lay out so much upon Vanity, that we cannot give what we ought to the Poor.

It tempts many to run in Debt, and binders many from paying their just Debts.

It makes us to despise Poor and Plain People, as if they were not of the same kind with us.
It makes us to envy one another, and to strive who shall go finest.

So that People are more concerned how to be esteemed in this World, then to be beloved of God, or to be happy in the next.

Q. Is there any other kind of Pride, which a Christian must renounce?
A. Yes. There is a proud Conceit of our selves, which is very natural to us, and yet very sinful.

For it causeth us to over-look our own Infirmities and Faults, so that we can never be truly humble.

To fancy that we deserve more than we have, which maketh us discontented.

To look upon God's Favours as our due, which maketh us unthankful.

Q. Since this Pride of Life and Heart, is so natural to us, what can cure us of it?
A. Nothing but the Grace of God, and possessing your Heart with things of greater Moment.

Consider that you are liable to eternal Misery. That your great Business in this World is to fit your self for a happy Death, and for the Day of Judgment; and you will be very indifferent about your Cloaths, or who takes Place of you.

You will neither study to be vain and foolish in your Dress, nor singular and conceited, but imitate such as are sober

And then, if you remember That you have nothing which you have not received ; Nothing but what you must give an Account for, you will have more Reason to Fear, than to be proud of your Advantages.

The PRAYER.

ALmighty God, who alone canst order the unruly Wills and Affections of sinful Men, grant us Grace to withstand the Temptations of the Devil, the World, and the Flesh, that we may never follow nor be led by them. Keep it ever in the Hearts of thy Servants, that it is indeed an Evil thing, and bitter to forsake the Lord, that we may never return unto the Sins we have Repented of. Make us, O Lord, ever mindful of our Infirmities, that we may ever look up to Thee for Help, and give us Grace that we may never despise thy Help, nor grieve thy Holy Spirit, by which we are Sanctified. Grant this, O Father, for thy dear Son’s sake, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Q. THE more I consider my Vow in Baptism, the more I am convinced that I ought to believe and do what my Godfathers and Godmothers promised for me.

And I heartily thank our Heavenly Father, that he hath called me to this State of Salvation, through Jesus Christ our Saviour. And I pray unto God to give me his Grace, that I may continue in the same unto my Lives end.

A. And God will most surely give you the Grace you pray for, if you are careful to watch, and to mortifie, and to deny your self, as the Christian Religion obligeth you to do.

Q. Is it a Christian Duty to watch ?

A. It is commanded by Christ, and often repeated by his Apostles, as a Duty of Moment ; and there is Reason for it.

For Sin is very deceitful, and so are our corrupt Hearts; the Devil is a Deceiver, and we live in a deceitful World, and it will be no Excuse that we are overcome, when the Word of God gives us Warning, commands us to watch and to depend upon God’s Help and Favour.

Q. How must a Christian watch over himself?
A. You must watch over your Heart, from whence all Evil proceedeth.

That when unlawful Thoughts and Desires come into it, you may resist them, while it is in your Power, and before they take too deep Root.

And that when the Spirit of God puts into your Mind good Desires, you may gladly receive, and heartily follow them.

You must watch over your Conscience, to keep it tender and awake, and resolve at all times to hearken to it.

You must watch over your Senses, and resolve never to please yourself at the hazard of your Soul.

And you must watch over your Actions, that when you have done amiss, you may repent, and do so no more.

And blessed is that Servant, whom his Lord, when he cometh, shall find so doing.

Q. What is the end of Mortification?
A. The end of Mortification is to subdue, by Degrees, the Corruption of Nature, that we may be come new Creatures, and fit for Heaven.

Q. How can we do this?
A. By the Help of the Holy Spirit, which is given to every Man at Baptism.
Q. What is to be done on our part towards this great Work?
A. You must heartily receive, and often think of this Truth;

That it will be impossible for you ever to go to Heaven, until your Nature is exchanged; that is, until you can take delight in hearing God’s Word, and doing his Will, which you can never do, while you live in known Sin.

Therefore let this be your serious Purpose, to root out of your Nature, as soon as may be, all evil Habits.

Remember, that every Sin a Man commits, he must hear of it again, either in bitter Repentance and Judgments here or hereafter, in endless Misery.

Consider, therefore, your particular Failings; Resolve against them; Be very Angry with your self, when you break your Resolutions; Make new Vows of better Obedience; Pray constantly to God for Help, that he who has commanded you not to sin, may also enable you to do his Will.

And be assured, that when he sees you in good Earnest sorry for your Offences, and struggling with your Corruptions, he will pity, and pardon, and mend what is amiss in you, and reward your Labour with the Blessings of Heaven. For if ye through the Spirit do mortifie the Deeds of the Body, ye shall live.

Q. Is Self-Denial a Christian Duty ?
A. Hear the very Words of Christ. If any Man will come after me, let him deny himself. That is, you must think nothing too dear to part with for the sake of Christ.

Q. Can there be any thing so dear, that we shall not willingly part with for his sake ?
A. When you make the trial, you will find, that you must Believe many things which corrupt Reason will not easily agree to, and therefore you must deny either your own Judgment, or the Word of God. That you must part with many Satisfactions, which your corrupt Heart sticks close to:
And that you must Do many things which your Nature will dislike.

Q. What is it that maketh us so unwilling to submit to God’s Word and Will ?
A. Pride and Self-Love, which incline us to believe that we are wise and able to govern our selves.

That whatever we desire, we may lawfully strive to obtain it.
That whatever will please us, will certainly be good for us.
And that whatever will make us uneasie, ought therefore to be avoided.

Now, the Word of God tells us quite otherwise. That the meek, they that mourn, and the poor in Spirit, are the only happy People; that those are most beloved of God, whom he correcteth.

Matt. 5
Heb. 12. 6.
That without him, we can do nothing. That it is a very great Judgment to have the Desires of our Hearts.

That ease and fulness of Bread, were the occasion of the Sin and Punishment of Sodom.

And that the best of God’s Servants have found it necessary to keep under the Body, by using it severely.

Q. What then will the Duty of Self-Denial oblige me to?

A. To confess that you have neither Wisdom, nor Strength, to carry you through this dangerous World.

To believe, that if God calls you to Sufferings, That is best for you, however uneasie it may be the present, To prepare your Soul for Temptations.

By drawing off the Mind from the Pleasure of Sense, that you may hearken to the Voice of the Spirit.

By prudently denying, even your innocent Appetites, that you may be able to deny them, when they are not so.

By Temperance, Fasting, and discreet Severities, chastising the Flesh, and making the next Life more desireable, by the Hardships of this.

Remembring, That he that hath no Rule over his own Spirit, is like a City without Walls.

Q. But what if I cannot deny my self, even after I have resolvd to do so?
A. Why, that is because you have not used to deny your self, or because you do not heartily believe the Word of God.

Men readily deny themselves Ease and Pleasures for the sake of Gain, because they have set their Hearts upon it; think you much of Heaven, and you will do so too.

The fear of the Laws keeps men from following their own Pleasures, and will not eternal Torments prevail with you to deny your self?

Your Friends can prevail with you to deny your self for your good; And cannot God, our Best and only Friend, be heard, when he requires it for our everlasting Advantage?

Q. Am I bound to observe the Fasts of the Church?
A. Yes, sure. Why else were they appointed?
Q. How ought such Days to be observed?
A. By abstaining from Meat and Drink, if your Health will permit; or at least, by such a sober Diet, as may testifie your Obedience to the Laws, as well as your Revenge upon your Body, for being an Occasion of so much Sin and Trouble to you.

Q. Is the Observation of these Things acceptable to God?

A. To consider the Meaning of what you believe.

To have it present in your Mind, that, when you are tempted to sin, you may consider, How can I, who believe in God, do such things, and sin against him?

Q. What is it to believe in God?

A. It is to believe all that he hath made known, both concerning himself, and our Duty to him, which is all contained in the Holy Scriptures, written by the Command of God, who can neither be deceived, nor can deceive us.

In all your Afflictions, you will have this Comfort, ’Tis good for a Man to be in Trouble, if a gracious Father sees it convenient.

Lastly, If God is your Father, your Inheritance is in Heaven; which you ought much to think of; That where your Treasure is, there may your Heart be also.

Yn P A D J E R.

THOU art worthy, O Lord, to receive Glory, and Honour, and Power, for thou hast created all things, and for thy Pleasure they are and were created. The Almighty God grant that the Knowledge and Belief of this, may create in us a suitable Fear of offending him; an earnest Desire of pleasing him, and such a Love as becometh thy dutiful Children and Servants. And grant that we which know thee now by Faith, may after this Life enjoy the glorious Blessings of thy Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Q. What do we chiefly learn from this part of the Creed ?
A. That Jesus is the Son of God ; and that He is our Lord.
Q. How doth it appear that Jesus is the Son of God ?
A. From the History of his Life, Death, and Resurrection from the dead ; written at large in the Holy Scriptures, and briefly contained in these Articles.

Q. What are the chief things in the History of the Life of Jesus which are proper to confirm our Faith in him ?
A. That He was spoken of by all the Prophets from the beginning of the World. That when the World was grown very wicked, and for the most part ignorant of the true God, he took upon him the Soul and Body of a Man, by being born of a Virgin of the Family of David, by the Power of the Holy Ghost.

Luke 1. 70.
Having thus taken upon him our Nature, He was declared to be the Son of God, by a Voice from Heaven, and the World commanded to hear, and to obey Him, as the Christ, that is, the Person ordain’d of God, to make known his Will to Mankind. Having this Commission from Heaven, He published His Gospel, containing the most joyful Message of Salvation, and the Means of attaining it. And to confirm the Truth of His Doctrin, he wrought an infinite number of Miracles, Liv’d a most worthy Life, and Died a most bitter Death.

For the People of the Jews, to whom he was sent with this Message, being not dispos’d by reason of their great Wickedness, to receive such Holy Rules as He affirm’d to be necessary to Salvation, they therefore Persecuted him most bitterly, and at last, having treated him with the utmost Scorn, they even forc’d Pontius Pilate, against his Conscience, to condemn him to be crucified.

When they were assured He was Dead, there was particular Care taken of his Burial; for a Company of Soldiers were appointed to watch his Body, that his Friends might not take it away, and say he was risen.

During this time, his Soul went into the Place where the Souls of Men do go, when they are parted from their Bodies; that he might undergo all Conditions of human Nature.

But upon the Third Day after his Death (ever since called the Lords Day) he was by the Power of God raised from the Dead; and continued Fourty Days upon Earth, Instructing his Disciples about the Kingdom or Church, which was shortly to be establish’d.

Q. How doth this show that he was the Son of God ?
A. He was Thus, that is, By his Resurrection from the Dead, declared to be the Son of God, saith S. Paul. For God would not have raised him from the Dead, but that he approved of all that he had said of Himself; all that he had Done in His Name; and all that he had Suffer’d for Mankind.

Q. Why did Christ take our Nature upon him ?
A. That in our Nature he migbht satisfie the Justice of God, who was highly displeas’d with the whole Race of Mankind, because they had Rebell’d against him, and were become extreamly wicked. And therefore he was called Jesus, that is, a Saviour, because he saveth his People from their Sins.

Q. Why did Jesus Christ suffer such severe things ?
A. He suffered for Our sakes, and in Our stead, and what our Sins justly deserv’d we should suffer. And being both the Son of God, and born of a Woman, He became a full, perfect, and sufficient Sacrifice and Satisfaction, for the Sins of the whole World.

Q. May we be assur’d of this, that God is fully satisfied with what he hath done and suffered for us ?

A. We may be confident of it. Because God did not only raise him from the Dead, but received him into Glory, setting him at his own Right Hand, that is, giving him all Power in Heaven and on Earth.

Q. How doth it appear that God hath done so ?

A. Because Christ hath made good all his Promises, and fulfill’d his Prophecies, which none but God could do. He immediately sent down the Holy Ghost, By which his Disciples were enabled to work the greatest Miracles ; and (though a company of poor unlearned Men) to convert the World to Christianity. And, as he had foretold, he destroyèd, in that Age, the City and Nation of the Jews, for their Wickedness and Impenitency ; And he has preserved his Church, according to his true Promise, so that neither the Malice of Men nor Devils have been able to prevail against it ; which undoubtedly sheweth that he bath the Power of God.

Q. Since then Jesus Christ hath made our Peace with God, we are secure from all Danger of God’s Displeasure.

A. It is our own fault, if we are not. For he hath reconciled us to God ; He has set us an Example, how we ought to walk and to please God. He hath promised to enable us by his Spirit to do his Will ; and if in any thing we fall short of our Duty, as we are too apt to do, he will prevail with God for Pardon and Grace, for all such as continue to deserve them.

Q. But what if Men despise these Favours, and Means of Salvation?

A. Why then there remaineth nothing, but a fearful looking for of Judgment. For this Jesus shall come again from Heaven, to judge both the Quick and the Dead.

Q. What is the full meaning of those Words?

A. That God hath appointed a Day in which he will judge the World in Righteousness, by Jesus Christ; when we must all appear before his Judgment Seat, and every one shall receive a just Sentence, according to what he hath done, whether it be good or bad. Then the Secrets of all Hearts shall be disclosed, and the most hidden Works of Darkness shall come to light; Mens Consciences shall then be truly awakened, and they shall be forced to see, and to confess their Crimes, and the Justice of that Sentence which shall then pass upon all those who have died in their Sins unrepented of. Who shall be cast into Hell-Fire, where there shall be wailing and gnashing of Teeth.

While those that were warned to flee from the Wrath to come, and brought forth Fruits meet for Repentance, shall be judged worthy of Eternal Happiness.

Q. Why is Jesus called Our Lord?

1 [sic cre]
A. Because he hath Redeemed us from the Power and Slavery of Satan. We live under his Protection. Whatever Blessings we enjoy, it is for his Sake. And it is from him, that all his faithful Servants expect their Reward. And therefore when we ask any Blessing of God, we thus conclude our Prayers, Through Jesus Christ Our Lord; acknowledging that we are not worthy to ask, or to receive the least Favour, but in and through him.

Q. What will be the Fruits of such a Belief in Christ?
A. Every part is full of Comfort and Instruction.

You believe in Jesus: Why then you have placed your Confidence in one who is able to save you. He can forgive your Sins; he can give Grace, and Strength, and Perseverance, and after all, eternal Life; for He is the Son of God.

You believe that he is the Christ; one sent from God. Then you are sure that the Doctrin which he taught is true, and that you ought to submit to it, and be governed by his Laws.

You profess he is your Lord, and that his Service is perfect Freedom.

If you are Poor, you have a right to the Favour of your Lord, as much as the greatest Man on Earth; and if you are Rich, He is your Lord, and as much to be honoured by you, as by the poorest.

When you call to mind that He was born of a Woman, you are sure that he took our Nature upon him, with all its Weaknesses, Miseries and Temptations; and therefore will be ready to support, to pity, and to pardon all that come to God by him.

You here remember that Jesus Christ suffered for you. You see then, what an abominable thing Sin is, that it required such a Sacrifice; and what all they must expect, who shall fall under God’s Displeasure, for want of a timely Repentance.

At the same time, you are sure that your Sins cannot be so great, but that the Price he has paid will be sufficient, if you repent of your Sins, and endeavour to lead a new Life.

And now, also, you may depend entirely upon the Love of God; for he that spared not his own Son, but gave him up for us all, will after that deny us nothing that may be good for us.

Since therefore it is in Him only, that Sinners have hope, you must not forget the Love of your Saviour thus dying for you; nor turn your Back upon that Holy Sacrament, where his Death and Mercies are especially remembred.

There you will learn, and be enabled also, to take up the Cross, whatever Affliction God shall lay upon you; to

If the Secrets of all Hearts will then be disclosed, will not you be afraid to barbour such Thoughts, such Designs, as will not bear the Light and Judgment of God?

Can you be foolishly merry, the Day you have repeated this Belief?

Will you hardly forgive your Neighbour that has offended you, and will you then hope that God will be ready to forgive you?

Do you Believe that we must then give an Account for all the Favours which God hath given us, and will not this force you to use and improve them to the Glory of God, and your own Salvation?

And above all consider, that you must then be judged, not as the World judges of things, but by the Word of God, by which, therefore, you must resolve to live, and not according to the foolish Opinions, and sinful Customs of the World.

Lastly; This Belief hath Comforts, as well as Terrors; for though we shall indeed be called to a strict Account yet we are sure to be heard with Favour, and treated with Compassion, if our Case will bear it. For, He who knows our Infirmities, He that died to save us, is to be our Judge.

I Believe in the Holy Ghost, the Holy Catholick Church; the Communion of Saints; the Forgiveness of Sins; the Resurrection of the Body; and the Life everlasting. Amen.

Q. Why do we believe in the Holy Ghost?
A. Because it is the Holy Ghost who fits us for Heaven; and therefore we are dedicated to Him in Baptism, by the Command of Christ, and are taught to pray, that He may ever be with us.

Q. How doth the Holy Ghost fit us for Heaven?
A. By convincing us of the danger of Sin; Of the Necessity and Mercy of a Redeemer, and of the possibility of overcoming our Enemies.

Q. By what Means doth the Spirit convince us of the Truth of these Things?
A. By establishing the Prophets and Apostles to make known the Will of God, and to confirm by Miracles what they said, that Men may be assured, their Word was the Word of God. So that in a very short time, a great Part of the World was converted to Christianity, not by worldly Force, but by the Preaching of the Gospel, and by the Power of the Holy Ghost.

Q. It is not sufficient that we have the Gospel preached unto us ?
A. It is not ; unless the Holy Ghost enlighten our Understanding. For no Man knoweth the Things of God, but the Spirit of God. And therefore, to the natural Man, the Gospel is mere foolishness, neither can he know the things that are spoken.

And even, where we do know the Truth, and see our Duty, we are not able to perform it, until the same Spirit sanctifieth our Hearts, that is, worketh in us good Dispositions, The Fear of God, a Love to his Law, and hearty Concern for our Souls, by which, we are enabled, in time, to overcome our Lust, to follow that which is good, and to prepare for another Life.

Now these Governours and Pastors, with the People under their Charge, are called the Church; of which, Christ is the Head.

It is called Holy upon many Accounts, but especially, because its great Design is to make Men Holy, and all its Members are required to be so.

It is also called Catholick, that is, Universal, because it is by Christ designed for the Salvation of all Nations and People, that will receive and obey the Laws of the Gospel.

Q. How is Christ with the Pastors of his Church?

A. His Holy Spirit is with them to bless those whom they bless in his Name, and to chastise those whom they justly censure.

Q. What is the end of Church Censures?

A. To bring Sinners to Repentance, and to preserve the Church pure and undefiled, if that may be, at least, to hinder the Judgments of God from falling upon the whole Body, which we shall not have Reason to fear, while notorious Offenders are called to an account, brought to a sense of their Wickedness, or cast out, if they continue obstinate.

Q. May not one hope for Pardon from God, without being exposed to shame?

A. Wbwhoever strives to avoid the Church’s Censures, doth not see the Danger of doing so; he doth not consider, that he consults his own, more than Gods Honour: That he despiseth the wholesome Order of the Church for the Conviction of Sinners, and depriveth himself of the Prayers of the Faithful, and the Ministry of Absolution; and that he may justly expect to hear from God in a way more afflicted.

Q. What then is the Duty of a Person who makes himself liable to the Censures of the Church?

To give Glory to God, in a free Confession of his Sins, acknowledging that God is able to punish Sinners, however they may escape the Censures of Men.

He is to do this with a true Sorrow for his Offences, stedfastly purposing to lead a New Life ; both because God the Searcher of Hearts hateth Hypocrisie, and that others, seeing his Affliction, may learn, That it is indeed an evil thing, and Bitter to forsake the Lord.

Lastly, his Duty is, to desire the Pardon and Prayers of his Fellow Christians, and the Absolution of God’s Minister, and then to comfort himself with the Promise of Christ to his Church, Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them ; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

Q. What is meant by The Communion of Saints ?
A. That all true Christians, called Saints, that is, People Dedicated to God, are One Body, having One head, One Faith, One Hope, One Baptism. And, therefore, every true Christian hath an Interest in the Prayers and Charities of the whole Church, and a right to all its Privileges. From which you ought to learn, what a very sad condition it is to be out of this Communion, or to be of the number of them who are not called Saints, that is, who do not live as becomes the Gospel, all such being without Hopes, and without Promises.

Q. How hath every Christian a right to the Forgiveness of Sins?
A. Only by the Merits and Promise of Christ, who hath made our Peace with God, upon condition, that with hearty Repentance and true Faith we turn unto him.

Q. Then the Promise of Forgiveness is no reason why People should continue in Sin, in hopes of Pardon?
A. No more reason, than that a Son should be more undutiful, because his Father is more kind. The Goodness of God ought to lead Men to Repentance; and if it doth not do that, his Justice will send them to Destruction.

Therefore remember, that if you sin wilfully, you run the greatest Hazard; you know not whether ever you shall have Time or Grace to repent, without which there is no Forgivness of Sins.

Q. What is the reason why some People, who profess to believe the Forgiveness of Sins, do yet despair of Pardon?
A. While any Person leads a careless Life, he ought to be thus afflicted, and to endeavour to comfort or divert such a Person, is to undo him.

But if a Man hath been a sober Liver, or having been otherways, doth truly Repent, he hath no reason to despair of Mercy; and it is for want of right Information if he doth so. And it is the Duty of such a Person to go to some discreet and learned Minister of Gods Word, who will satisfie him, that God is mercifull; would have all Men to be saved; is faithful to his Promises, and maketh even our Afflictions useful to us.

That he who hath taught us to pray daily for Pardon, will forgive us our Trespasses, if we strive daily to mortifie our Corruptions. And that Men may have no reason to despair, God hath given Power to his Ministers to absolve the Penitent, and what they do, will be approv'd in Heaven.

Q. Will there certainly be a Resurrection of the Body?
A. As sure as now we live, we shall Rise again; God hath expressly said it, and he is able to do it.

Q. What is the Duty of one who believes this?
A. To keep his Body in Temperance, Soberness, and Chastity, that it may be a fit Temple for the Holy Ghost to dwell in: That he who raised Christ from the Dead, may quicken our mortal Body, by the Spirit that dwelleth in

While you live, you have Life and Death set before you; but when you dye, you have no longer that Choice, but Life Eternal, or Eternal Death will be your Portion; which you would do well to think of, and to pray to God that you may make a wise Choice.

The PRAYER.

O God, forasmuch as without thee we are not able to please thee, grant that thy Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our Hearts. Make us lively Members of thy Church, and Partakers of all its blessed Privileges, and give us Grace that we may never forfeit them by any wilful Disobedience to thy Laws, or to those whom thou hast set over us. Vouchsafe us Forgiveness of all our Sins before we dye, that through the Grave and Gate of Death, we may pass to a joyful Resurrection; And that finally we may come to thine everlasting Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

[60] Yn tras ynnyd. Ayns Jee yn Spyrryd Noo ta casherickey mish as oilleyn Pobble reiht Yee.

Q. Cre ta shin gynsagh veih’n Ansoor shoh?

Q. What dost thou chiefly learn in these Articles of thy Belief?

A. First. I learn to believe in God the Father, who hath made me and all the World.

Secondly. In God the Son, who hath redeemed me, and all Mankind.

Thirdly. In God the Holy Ghost, who sanctifieth me, and all the elect People of God.

Q. What do we learn from this Answer?
A. That there is One God: who never left himself without Witness, but gave evidence of his Power, and Wisdom, and Goodness to all Ages. But unto Us he hath made himself known in the Persons of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; as our Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier: By which we come more perfectly to know the manner of our Redemption.

That God the Father had Compassion for his sinful Creatures, which greatly stood in need of his Mercy, and sent his only Son to redeem us.

That God the Son took our Nature upon him; made known his Fathers Will; set us an Example how we ought to walk and to please God; became a Sacrifice for us; by which Sacrifice we have Redemption through his Blood, even the Forgiveness of our Sins; for Confirmation of which, he rose again from the Dead, and sent the Holy Ghost to prepare us for that Happiness which he had purchased for us.

That God the Holy Ghost taketh under his Care all such as believe in Jesus Christ, and sanctifieth them; that is, he enlightens their Understandings, and by degrees changes their Affections, so that they come to have new Thoughts, new Hopes, new Desires, till at last they become new Creatures, and such as God, in Mercy, will receive into his heavenly Kingdom.

Now, without Faith, that is, without believing the Gospel, which containeth these Truths, we cannot serve God, nor hope for Pardon and Salvation from him.

But if we believe the Gospel, this Faith becometh a powerful Means to make us
Good, if either the greatest Promises, or the most dreadful Threatnings can work upon us.

Q. What are the Promises you mean?
A. A full and free Pardon of all our Sins, if with hearty Repentance and true Faith we turn unto God.

A full Assurance, that God will require of us no more than he will enable us to perform.

And lastly, a sure Promise of eternal
Happiness, if we but do our best to serve God.

Q. These are very comfortable truths;
I pray God they may never be lost upon us. But what are the severe Threatnings you spoke of?
A. They that will not retain God in their knowledge, He will give up to a Mind void of Judgment.

Being thus given up, they will fall into such Courses as must bring them to Destruction.

Which Destruction will be most terrible. They shall be turned into Hell, where the Worm dieth not, and where the Fire shall not be quenched.

Q. How doth the Belief of these things become a Means to make us good?
A. By making us serious and thoughtful, which they must needs be, who often think of these Matters.

Convincing us, that it is our Wisdom to forsake the Pleasures of Sin, which are but for a Season: And that it is reasonable to do what God hath commanded, if we expect to obtain what be bath promised for our Encouragement.

And when we are thus disposed for eternal Life, God the Father becomes reconciled to us; God the Son becomes our Advocate; God the Holy Ghost becomes our Guide and Comforter.

Q. What is the Reason, why all who know this, do not presently become obedient Servants of God?

A. Because many are careless, and never mind their Souls; Many are obstinate, and will not think of these Things; Many are wholly taken up with the Cares or the Pleasures of this World, and cannot look towards a better; And many are wicked and dare not think of a Life to come.

Now, where it is thus with Men, all the Promises of the Gospel will not move them, nor the Terrors of the Lord frighten them into Obedience.

Q. Is it not sufficient to live well, though one should not believe these things?

A. You may as well hope to live without Food, as to live well without Faith.

Rom. 5. 1.

Causes of Unbelief.
We have many grievous Sins to be pardoned, the Pardon of which, none but the Son of God can procure for us.

We have ungodly Appetites to struggle with, which nothing but the fear of God can keep under.

We have the Temptations of a naughty World, and of an evil Spirit to resist, which nothing but the Spirit of God can enable us to oppose.

To God therefore we must go for Help, which we cannot do, unless we heartily believe these Articles of our Christian Faith.

Q. Are these the only necessary Truths to be believed?

A. These are the most necessary, and the Knowledge and Belief of these, will Help you to profit by the whole Word of God, by which your Faith will every Day be strengthened.

Q. I pray shew me how?

A. When you read in the Holy Scriptures of God’s Judgments upon Sinners; Of the whole World destroyed by a Flood; Of Cities over-turned; Of Nations carried Captive; Of Famines, Wars, and Pestilence; in all these, you will see and learn to fear the Almighty Power of God, and that it is our Wisdom not to provoke him.
Posterity, you have so many Examples of God's Faithfulness; and when you know that all Men have a Right to his Kindness, who strive to deserve them, you will serve him with cheerfulness.

When you see the Wickedness of Men brought upon their own Heads, and wicked Devices brought to nought, you will be confirmed in this Faith, That all things are naked and open unto the Eyes of Him with whom we have to do.

When you find things brought to pass many hundred Years after they were foretold, you will admire the Providence of God, and be satisfied that he orders all things for the best.

But above all, the Gospel will convince you, That you have not believed in vain.

The Miracles of Jesus, both Many and Great, will force you to believe his Doctrine.

His Doctrine will appear every way worthy of God: His Example will make you in Love with your Duty; and His Sufferings will convince you, that it is no Misfortune to suffer, when that is the Way to eternal Glory.

There you will see His Care for his Church, in commanding his Ministers to feed his Flock; and you will learn to know the Value of your Soul, and the great Misfortune of losing it, when you see Jesus Christ, His Apostles, and Servants, so much concerned to save us.

_A._ Consider that Faith is the Gift of God, and must be obtained by using proper Means.

Therefore, if you resolve to forsake every evil Way, hearken to the Word of God, cast your self upon his Mercy, pray to him for Help, and purpose to be governed by his Laws, your Faith will increase daily, you will go from Strength to Strength, and be able to do all Things which will make you acceptable to God.

Only remember—

That you must never depend upon God’s Mercies and Promises, unless you do what he bath commanded.

That what God hath threatned will come to pass, whether you believe it or not.

The PRAYER.

WE believe, Lord increase our Faith, and give us Grace, that with an Holy Life we may adorn the Religion we profess. Keep us stedfast in this Faith, into which we are baptised, that no Errors may separate us from thee, but that thy Love, O merciful God; Thy Grace, O blessed Jesus; Thy Fellowship, O Holy Ghost, may defend and comfort us in all Dangers and Adversities, until we attain the end of our Faith, even the Salvation of our Souls. Amen.

Ten Commandments.

Quest. YOU say that your Godfathers and Godmothers did Promise for you, that you should keep God’s Commandments. Tell me, how many there be ?

Ans. Ten.

Q. Which be they ?
A. The same which God spake in the twentieth Chapter of Exodus, saying, I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the Land of Egypt, out of the House of Bondage.

Q. Why did they promise for me that I should keep God’s Commandments ?
A. Because you cannot possibly go to Heaven, if you do not keep them;¹ If thou wilt enter into Life, keep the Commandments. For by these we shall be judged at the last day.

That they belong to us as well as unto the People of Israel, we may be sure, because Christ hath confirmed and explained them in the Gospel. He is the Lord our God as well as theirs; He brought them out of the House of Bondage, and He brought us from Darkness to Light, and from the Power of Satan unto God.

¹ [In the Manx is added: or make a timely repentance.]
Q. Why do the Commandments begin with these words, I am the Lord thy God?
A. That we may prepare our Hearts to receive his Commandments with the greatest Concern and Reverence.

When the Lord of Heaven and Earth, of Life and Death speaks, sure, his Creatures will hear and obey, for Conscience sake, that is, because God commands them.

Q. But can we keep the Commands of God?
A. We can do our best, and it is our great Happiness, that God, for Christ’s sake, will accept of that, instead of a perfect Obedience.

1. Thou shalt have none other Gods but me.

Q. What is the Meaning of this Commandment?
A. You are hereby forbidden to think any Creature so great, as to be Feared more than God. Or any thing so good, as to be more worthy of your Love.

You are forbidden to depend upon your self, upon your own Labour and Care, for Prosperity, upon your Friends for Security, upon your Wealth for Happiness: for these are Blessings only when God is pleased to make them so.

You are hereby forbidden to give heed to Superstitious Observations and Charms, for procuring of good, or for Preventing evil; for this is to forsake that God, without whose Leave and Cha jean oo crommney sheesDirection, neither good nor evil can befall any of his Creatures. Go and cry unto the Gods which ye have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your Tribulation.

Lastly, you are by this Command forbidden to murmur at God’s Dealings with your self or others, for he is Lord of all. You are forbidden To help your self by unjust Ways, for this is to do it without God’s leave. Or, To take the Glory of Good Success to your self, for this belongs to God only.

Q. What is commanded in this Law?
A. You are hereby commanded to live as in the Sight of God; firmly to Believe what he hath made known in his holy Word. To Pray for his Blessing upon every thing you undertake; and to give him Thanks for all his Favours.

You are likewise commanded openly to own him as your God, by going constantly to his House, the Church; where he is publickly honoured as the Great Lord and Benefactor of the World.

Lastly, You are hereby commanded to respect every thing that is his, his Day, his Word, his House, his Ministers. And to do all this with the Heart, as well as with the Body; for whatever you speak or think is known to him.

For I the Lord thy God am a Jealous God, and visit the Sins of the Fathers upon the Children unto the Third and Fourth Generation of them that hate me; and shew Mercy unto thousands in them that love me, and keep my Commandments.

Q. What is the meaning of this Commandment?
A. All that believe in the True God are hereby forbidden to worship him by an Image or Picture, because God is Jealous of his Honour; and though People may pretend not to worship the Image, yet if they worship before it, they shall be severely punished; for that is in truth forbid by this Command.

Q. Doth this Command concern Us, who have none of this Practice?
A. It concerns you upon many accounts.

1. To make you thankful to God, who by his Providence, and not by his Judgments, hath cured us of this vile Custom.

2. You may from hence learn how necessary it is to keep close to the Word of God, who best knows our Infirmities, and hath therefore forbidden all use of Images in his Service; which some neglecting, brought them into Churches upon pretence of instructing the ignorant; a Way which neither Christ nor his Apostles thought fit to appoint;

3. Lastly, this Command will direct

Q. I pray shew me how it doth so ?
A. You must not Bow before an Image, because such humble Respect belongs to God only ; which Respect therefore you must shew when you worship Him ; for so good Men have ever done ; and to do otherwise, is to affront God to his Face, and is a Sin not sufficiently thought on.

Exod. 34. 8.
Act. 20. 6.

Q. How doth the Greatness of this Sin appear ?
A. If you were forced into a Place where People were worshipping an Idol, you would sit, or by some way shew that you despised it. Therefore, if you Sit, or Sleep in God’s House when others are praying to him, will it not be judged that you despise that God to whom they pray ?

Q. How must we behave our selves in God’s House and Presence ?
A. Consider seriously that you go to Church to do Honour to God, and to ask such Things as you cannot want without being miserable.
Therefore your Behaviour must be such as may be apt to procure, in your

And then you will return home with God’s Blessing.

Q. Doth this Command afford any further Instruction ?
A. Yes. It shews us, that the Piety of Parents shall be remembred for the Good of their Children, to many Generations.

That the best Portion, Children can receive, from their Parents, is God’s Blessing.

And that such Parents as are not careful to Love God and to keep his Commandments, do leave certain Calamities to their Posterity.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain: For the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his Name in vain.

When they pray to God, or call upon him, without minding what they say.

When they swear falsly, or in common Discourse. And when they use the Name of God or his Word in Charms, or in Curses, or in making Vows about Trifles.

Q. What is the Meaning of that Expression, The Lord will not hold him Guiltless ?

A. The Meaning is, That this Sin shall certainly be punished, and more than Words can express ; however common it is, and little regarded.

Q. Is it a Sin to swear by any other Oath ?

A. Our Blessed Saviour expressly forbids all Swearing in common Discourse, let the Oaths seem never so innocent.

Q. What are the Oaths you mean ?

A. To swear by ones Faith, by ones Life, by the Heavens, by the Virgin Mary, and the like ; a Custom which is very sinful, and which will expose you to the Wrath of God.

Q. Must a Person swear when he is called by the Magistrate to do so ?

A. Yes, it is then his Duty to do so, because it is to put an end to Strife, which is well-pleasing to God.

Q. What is the Duty of one who shall be sworn on a Jury ?

A. His Duty is, to lay aside all Prejudice ; honestly endeavour to find out the Truth, without so much as wishing to find things otherwise than indeed they are. Never to be led by other Peoples Perswasions, but to make such

Q. What is a Persons Duty who is sworn to give Evidence ?
A. His Duty is to consider seriously what he is going to say, that he may speak the Truth to the best of his Knowledge ; neither concealing any part, nor adding to it. Remembering that God sees the Secrets of all Hearts, and that a Curse shall enter into his House, if he swears falsly.

From whence you also see the great Sin of those who tamper with Men upon their Oath.

Q. What are we commanded in this Law ?
A. To speak of God, and of Religious Matters after such a serious manner, that People may learn to have Reverent Thoughts of Him and his Service.

IV. Remember that thou keep Holy the Sabbath Day. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all that thou hast to do ; But the Seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt do no manner of Work, thou, and thy Son, and thy Daughter, thy Man-Servant, and thy Maid-Servant, thy Cattel, and the Stranger that is within thy Gates. For in Six Days the Lord made Heaven and Earth, the Sea and all that in them is, and rested the Seventh Day ; wherefore the Lord blessed the Seventh Day, and hallowed it.

Q. How far doth this Command concern us Christians?
A. We are hereby bound to keep One day in Seven Holy, And because Jesus Christ rose from the Dead on the First day of the Week, and on the same day sent down the Holy Ghost to guide his Church unto the Worlds end; the Apostles therefore set apart that day, calling it the Lord’s Day, and the Church hath ever since observed it, according to the true meaning of this Command.

Q. Why are we bid in an especial manner to keep this Law?
A. Because, if this should be forgotten, all Religion would soon be forgotten with it; and the very Knowledge of the true God, as it is in many Nations, would be lost amongst us, were there not Days set apart, and Persons appointed to bring it to our Remembrance.

Q. How hath God blessed this Day above the rest?
A. Having sanctified, that is, separated it from the common Business of Life, he hath promised an especial Blessing to all such as keep it Holy; and Jesus Christ hath renew’d that Promise.

Q. How must we keep it Holy, that we may obtain this Blessing?
A. We must lay aside all such Business, Cares and Pleasures, as may any way unfit us for the Service of God, to which the Day is devoted; and leaving all our worldly Concerns, for that time, in his Hands, who is able to make us amends for the want of our own and Servants Labour; We must go to the Place of Publick Worship, and give Honour to God, by confessing our Unworthiness, that we are sinful, needy, helpless Creatures; by acknowledging His Power and Goodness, giving Him Thanks for his Blessings, and praying Him to continue them to us.

Q. Are all bound to observe this Day?

A. Yes, all that can be spared from the necessary Business of the Family.

Children, that they may learn their Duty, and from their Infancy to fear God.

Servants, that they may not forget that they have a Master in Heaven.

And the very Beasts are to rest, unless Necessity requires it to be otherwise, that the whole Creation may rejoice in the Mercies of God.

Q. Why is it said, Six Days shalt thou Labour?

A. To put us in mind, that it is God who gives us all our time.

That we are fallen from a State of Happiness, and must labour for our daily Bread.

Lastly; That it is purely by God's Permission, that we prosper in our daily Labours, that therefore we ought to serve him truly all our Days.

Q. How is the Lord's Day profaned?

Q. Must we observe other Days, besides the Lord’s Day?

A. Yes; the Feasts of the Church, which are also set apart by Authority, to keep up the Remembrance of God’s Mercies to us.

Q. What is our Duty on such Days?

A. To go to the Publick Place of Worship, to Thank God for his Favours to his Church, and particularly, for that we then remember.

To let our Servants have leis and innocent Diversions, that they may cheerfully serve both their Masters.

However, where Necessity requires, both the Servant should be willing, and the Master should not scruple, on such Days, to do what is really needful.

Q. May we not observe Fortunate and Cross Days?

A. By no Means; it is a great Sin to do so, and expressly forbidden by God, and reckoned as a sort of Witchcraft, and with good Reason; for by this Superstition, God the Author of all Good, is forgotten to be Feared, Praised, and Trusted in.

Q. What are the duties contained in this Command?
A. The Duty of Children to their Parents, of Servants to their Masters, of People to their Governours, of all Christians to their Spiritual Pastors, and of all Men to their Betters.

Q. Why is the Duty of Children to their Parents only mentioned?
A. Because that is a Duty first learned, and best understood; Children very naturally love their Parents, and are generally kept in subjection by them; and, therefore, when they are commanded so to Honour others, as they do their Parents, they easily know what that meaneth.

Q. What would then be my Duty ?
A. The Duty of Parents is, to bring up their Children in Obedience, and in the Fear of God ; to take Care that they be instructed in true Religion ; to provide for them, but not by unrighteous Ways ; to correct them when they say or do any wicked thing ; to be Examples to them of Piety, Sobriety, and Diligence. And lastly, to bless and to pray for them. All which, you will be more careful to do, if you consider what a dreadful Thing it will be, should your Children be for ever miserable through your Negligence.

Q. What if it should be my lot to be a Servant ?
A. The Duty of Servants is, to be Obedient to their Masters, Diligent in their Business, not with Eye-Service, as Men-Pleasers ; To be as

And lastly, he must remember that he hath a Master in Heaven, to whom be oweth Service, and from whom he may expect the Reward of a faithful Servant.

Q. What is our Duty towards them that have the Rule over us ?

A. Your Duty is, to obey them, not only for fear of Punishment, but for Conscience sake. Not to speak evil of them, but to shew them all becoming Respect, and to pray that God may bless them, and make them Instruments of great Good to us all.

Q. What is the Duty of People to their Pastours?

A. To Respect them for their Master’s sake, and for their Works sake; remembering the Words of Christ to his Ministers, He that despiseth you, despiseth me. Therefore, your Duty is to hearken to their Instruction, To pay them their Due without Fraud or Grudging, that God may bless both their Labours and yours.

For, it is their Business and Duty, to study all ways of teaching you how you should walk and please God; To reprove you when you do amiss; To pray that you may do well; To bless you in God’s Name; and to be wholesome Examples in Word and Deed, and they have much to answer for, if they are not such.

Q. Whom else must I honour?

Q. What is the Duty required in this Commandment ?

A. It is your Duty, as much as in you lieth, to live peaceably with all Men. To avoid the Company of contentious People. To deliver the Oppressed, and to be merciful to such as are in Misery ; to forbear and forgive one another, and be well-pleased with the Welfare of all Men.

VII. Thou shalt not commit Adultery.

Q. What are the Sins here forbidden ?

A. All manner of Uncleanness, and all such things as are apt to lead Men into Vices not fit to be named. All Drunkenness and Gluttony, and eager Contriving for the Belly ; a sloathful Life ; wanton Words and Actions ; filthy Books and Songs ; all which are a great Offence to God, and by no means fit for one who expects to live with Saints and Angels in Heaven.

Q. What then is my Duty, that I may escape that dreadful Sentence?

A. Your Duty is to be Temperate, to bring your Body into Subjection to your Spirit; And if you cannot contain, to use that Honourable Remedy, which God hath provided, to keep you innocent. Ever remembrance that Whoredom takes away the Heart; That is, it makes Men regardless of what must come hereafter; so that they very often see not their Danger, until they feel it without Remedy.

Q. What is the Duty of Married Persons?

A. To live peaceably together; remembering, that Marriage was ordained of God, for the mutual Help and Comfort which the one ought to have of the other. And therefore they both of them have vowed before God, The Husband to love, to comfort, to Honour, and to keep his Wife.

The Wife to obey, to serve, to love, and to honour her Husband, as long as they both shall live. Which Vows are as sacred as can be made, and are here set down, that they may be often thought on by married Persons; which would be a means of making that State of Life the Happiest that can be on Earth.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

Q. How is this Command transgressed?

A. Not only by Theft, which is a base Vice, and openly abhorred, but by Oppression, Deceit, Withholding of Dues, Concealing of found Goods, Defrauding the Publick, Wearying Men out of their Rights, or Impairing their Estates by vexations Law-Suits, By Power, Interest, Bribery, or Craft; which are Crimes too often committed by those who never expect to be punished for the Breach of this Command; and yet God is most surely the Avenger of all such.

Q. What is required of us that we may keep this Law?

A. It is your Duty to be diligent in your Calling, that you may be able to live without taking unlawful Ways.

To be a good Husband of what God hath given you, lest having squandered it, you be tempted to live by Deceit.

To be contented with your Condition; believing, that better is a little with Righteousness, than great Revenues without Right.

Lastly, to depend upon God’s Providence, which takes care of all Creatures; and will certainly Reward the Honest Poor Man, who

Q. What is the Duty of one who is sensible of his Sin, and sorry that he hath broke this Law?

A. He must confess his Sin unto God, and if he can possibly do it, he must make amends to the Person he hath wronged, without which he must not expect Forgiveness from God.

And this is that which makes this Sin so very hard to be repented of; because, through Shame or Stubborness, People will not make Restitution of what they have got by Fraud or Violence; and yet they hope to be saved; But this is the Hope of Hypocrites, which shall perish.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false Witness against thy Neighbour.

Q. Is any more here forbidden, than the being a False Witness?

A. Yes. You are hereby forbidden to say any thing of other Men, which may hurt them, unless it be with an honest Design, to bring them to Repentance, or to hinder them from doing greater Mischiefs to others.

Therefore to invent Stories, to add to them, and to set them abroad; to encourage Tale-bearers; to give Men ill Names; to publish their Infirmities; to make their Faults worse than they are ;

are all condemn’d by this Law, and other Scriptures.

As the very Work of the Devil,
As the Destruction of all good Neighborhood and Christian Charity.

Q. From whence doth this Sin proceed ?

A. Sometimes from a base Disposition : there are People who love Mischief, and are pleased, the more of it there is in the World. Sometimes from a busie Temper ; from Pride, from Evil Designs, and sometimes People do it for Diversion.

But from whencesoever it proceeds, it is a sign of an impudent Mind, to speak ill of others, as if such Men had no Faults of their own ; to jest with a Man’s good Name, which is more valuable than his Estate ; to set Friends at variance, and to disturb their good Neighborhood. And therefore Revilers are reckoned amongst those that must not go to Heaven.

Q. What is required of us by this Law ?

A. It is your Duty to speak the Truth at all times, when ’tis fit, as well as when you are upon your Oath. To be tender of Mens Reputation ; to be disposed to hear, and believe, and to speak the Best ; not to take pleasure in foolish or wicked Stories. And we shall observe these Rules the better, if we consider what a sore Grief it is to our selves, to be abused by a wicked Tongue.
X. Thou shalt not covet thy Neighbour’s House; thou shalt not covet thy Neighbour’s Wife, nor his Servant, nor his Maid, nor his Ox, nor his Ass, nor any thing that is his.

Q. What is the meaning of this Command?

A. You are hereby forbidden to Covet, that is, to set your Heart upon that which is another Man’s, lest you be tempted to take unlawful Ways of getting it into your Possession; as Ahab did, who having set his Heart upon his Neighbours Estate, when he could not have it for his Money, the Devil helped him to get it another way, which cost him his Life, and the Ruin of his Family.

[90] Q. But may not a Man desire to buy what is anothers?

A. Yes, no doubt of it, provided the other can lawfully dispose of it, and that you suppose he is willing to do so; but if he is not willing, then to continue to desire it, is a Sin against this Law of God.

Q. What doth this Law require?

A. That you keep your Heart with all Diligence, because out of it proceedeth all manner of Wickedness.

That you resist the very beginnings of Sin, which, if let alone, will bring forth Death.

That you be contented with your own Lot, as that which is appointed you by a wise and good God.

Lastly, that you set God always before you, who seeth the very Secrets of your Heart, and will punish all its sinful Lusts.

The PRAYER.

Open our Eyes, O Lord, that we may see that thy Law is Holy, Just, and good; and that we may keep it with our whole Heart; that we may love and honour all those whom thy Providence hath made our Betters. That we may do Violence to no Man. That we may abhor all Unchast Desires, Words, and Actions; all Deceit and Oppression; all the Evils of a lying Tongue; all covetous Desires, and Beginnings of Lust. Lord have Mercy upon us, and write all these thy Laws in our Hearts, we most humbly beseech thee. Amen.

Q. WHAT dost thou chiefly learn by these Commandments?
A. I learn two things, my Duty towards God, and my Duty towards my Neighbour.

Q. How are the Commandments divided?
A. The Four first make the First Table, and teach us our Duty to God: The Six last, or the Second Table, do contain the Duty we owe to our Neighbour.

A. By no means; Religion being the Business of all Men; a plain Man, if he is well-disposed, may know his Duty, and be able to perform it, as well as the greatest Scholar.

Q. This is a comfortable Truth, I pray make me sensible of it.
A. Do you not see that all necessary Knowledge lieth in a very narrow compass; Your Duty to God, and to your Neighbour, is contained in a few Words, very easie to be understood and remembred, where People truly believe in God, and heartily desire to be saved.

Q. Then I trust I shall not perish, for I do believe in God, and I heartily wish to be saved.

love God with all your Heart, though you are persuaded you do.

Q. I beg I may see my Error, if I am in one.

A. Do you live in any known Sin? If you do so, you may be sure you do not fear Him who hath Power to destroy both Body and Soul in Hell.

It may be, you think, you love God above all Things, but if you are not concerned to keep his Laws, and angry with your self when you break them, then you do not love God: For this, saith S. John, is the love of God, that we keep his Commandments.

Do you run to God in all your Wants, pray to him, rest satisfied with what he orders for you, casting all your Care upon him? If you do not so, Why then you do not trust in Him with all your Heart?

Q. I see it is my Duty thus to Love, and to Fear, and to Trust in God, but I am afraid it will be hard for me to do so.

A. Be not discouraged; to a well disposed Mind, the Grace of God will make every thing easie.

Only remember, that these gracious Dispositions are to be obtained as well by your own Endeavours, as by God’s Assistance. That no Man is perfect at once, but the Work of the Spirit is fitly compared unto a grain of Mustard-

Q. What then must I do, that I may believe, without any doubt, that God governeth all things, and that I may cheerfully submit to whatever He doth, as the best ?

A. You must often consider, that God cannot do Wrong to his Creatures, which he would not have made, if He had hated them.

Remember that the best Men do own the Justice and Goodness ness [sic] of God, even when they smart under his hand.

Consider how short your own Knowledge is ; and, as when you first saw Corn flung into the Ground, tho it did seem to you to be lost, yet you could not but think, they that did it had Reason for it, because they were wiser than you ; If you think so of God, you will at last come to be well pleased with whatever he doth, or permits to be done, and never to murmur at the Ways of His Providence.

Q. Though it is my Duty to fear God above all Things, yet I am often more afraid of the Laws, and the Anger of my Friends, than of God.

Q. How must I learn to Love God ?

A. Consider how you came to Love your Parents, was it not because you were used to go to them upon all Occasions, and found them always ready to hear and to help you ?

Why, now consider that your Parents could not help you, without God’s Blessing ; your Mother could not hinder her self from Miscarrying of you, and when you were born, she could not keep you from sad Accidents, from Sickness, or from Death. It is God who hath preserved you, who inviteth you to call upon him in all your Wants, hath promised to hear, to answer, and to be a Father to you, and, if you obey Him, to make you happy for ever.

Do you therefore accept of this gracious Invitation, pray to God for what you want, and you will love Him as naturally as a Child doth the Parents that nourish him.

Q. But, though it is my Duty to call upon, and worship God, yet I find a backwardness in my Nature to do so.

Q. Must I also trust in God, and believe that he careth for me, though I am in Poverty ?

A. You must do so. For Riches are not always a Sign of God’s Favour, nor Poverty of His Displeasure.

Remember the Resolution which Jacob made, If God will be with me, and give me Bread to eat, and Raiment to put on, then shall the Lord be my God.

To comfort your self and confirm your Faith, consider, That this is the Work of God. That he can make you sufficient amends in the next World, for what you want in this.

That the Poor are expressly declared to be Heirs of his Kingdom.

That to be sure, God hath his Eye continually upon the Poor, because he hath so often commanded others to take Care of them.

Think of these Things and you will be content with your Condition, and not desire to better it by unjust Ways.

You will neither envy the Rich, nor question the Goodness of God.

Q. Are the rich as much bound to Trust in God, as the Poor ?

A. They are. For they depend upon God, both for the Enjoyment, and Continuance of their Riches. For Riches make themselves Wings, and fly away. And it is God who giveth a Man Power to enjoy what he has gotten.

Q. Is it not sufficient that we love, and fear, and honour God?

A. It is not. For we have this Commandment from God, That he who loveth God, love his Brother also; and therefore, he that saith he loveth God, and hateth his Brother, is a Liar; He neither loveth God, nor doth God love him.

Q. Who is my Neighbour and Brother?

A. Every Person who is capable of your Love. For God hath declared us all to be Brethren, that we may learn to rejoice in one anothers Happiness, and be concerned at the Sufferings of each other.

That we may relieve their Wants, be ready to help their Misfortunes, and always think the best of what they say or do.

By which we shall secure the Favour of God, and get such Dispositions as may fit us for Heaven.

And in the mean time, the most unlearned Person hath a Rule to walk by, suited to his Capacity.

Q. I pray make me understand that.

A. Consider how you love your self. You wish your self all good Success in your Business; you are sorry when you miscarry; you never envy your self any thing that is good; you do not love to vex, and seldom fall out with your self, or if you do, you are soon reconciled; why thus you will deal with your Neighbour, if you love him as your self, as you are commanded to do.

You are much concerned for your own Credit; you are not forward to publish your own Faults; you know what a Vexation it is to be deceitfully dealt with, and doth not this teach you not to deal so with others?

You take it ill to be despised by those below you, why then you must not despise your Betters, but honour and obey them, according to their Place and Condition.

And this you will do more cheerfully, when you consider, That we cannot live without one another. They that go fine, and fare well, could not do so, if others did not labour hard; and they that labour, could not live comfortably, if they were not Protected and Encouraged.

So that if the Rich will not love and support the Poor, and the Poor will not honour, and obey, and be faithful to them, both Poor and Rich will be Sufferers.

It is therefore happy for us that God hath commanded us to Love [one] another.

Q. Jean my Ghraih gys my Naboo my leittal dy hirrey shen ta dy jarroo my Chairys liorish Leih?

Q. How may we attain to such a Christian-Temper?

A. You must take all Occasions of wishing well, and doing good to others, continually exercising your Compassion, by relieving the Poor, helping such as are in Distress, comforting the Afflicted, and mourning with them that mourn: which will sweeten your Temper, and bring you to good Nature.

You must beware of taking Pleasure in the Calamities of other Men, though your greatest Enemies; for that would make you inhuman and hard-hearted.

You must often consider that all Men have a Desire and a Right to be easie, as well as you; That you your self have Faults, and that you stand in need of Pardon from Men, and of Mercy from God.

But above all consider, that this is God’s express Command, that we love one another, without which we cannot be saved.

Therefore humbly pray to him, that he may give you the Spirit of Love, and such Dispositions as he will graciously accept of.

And then you will find, that be you never so obedient to your Betters, never so civil to your Equals, never so kind to your Inferiours, no Man will profit by it more than your self.

A. It will not: But then it must be for something of value, and not for such Trifles as it would not hurt you [to] lose.

And then it is your Duty, first to try all friendly Ways; when that will not do, you must go to Law with a Christian Temper, without Revenge, without taking tedious and spiteful Courses, and vexing your Neighbours and your Self without cause.

And lastly, You are to be satisfied with what the Law shall determin, be it for or against against you.

Q. What is my Duty, if my Neighbour speaketh evil of me?

A. If you deserve to be evil spoken of, your going to Law will but open Peoples Mouths.

But if you are indeed abused, you ought privately to reprove him that hath done it; if you cannot make him sensible of his Fault, tell it to his Pastour, whose Duty it is to admonish him, and if he continue obstinate, to deny him the Holy Communion, which is a greater Punishment than the Law can inflict.

Your Duty in the mean while is patiently to bear the Injury, to return Good for Evil, freely to forgive, sincerely to pray for him; For so hath Christ expressly commanded. Matt. 5. 44.

And for your Comfort, consider that by thus freely forgiving him, you have a Right to the gracious Promise God made of pardoning your Sins; so that

Q. Is Lying against that love which we owe to our Neighbour?

A. Yes, sure. And if you consider what Mischief it doth, how Ill you take it to be deceived your self, how Ill you take it to be suspected of Lying, you will be convinced that it is a base Vice, and that there is great Reason for those terrible Threatnings which we find in God’s Word, against such as are guilty of this Sin, That they shall be cast into Hell.

Q. What are the Rules of Temperance, Soberness and Chastity, which a Christian is to walk by?

A. Whether ye eat or drink, or whatever ye do, do all to the Glory of God; That is, take Care that the Name of God and Religion, be not evil spoken of, by your excess in these Things.

Let us walk honestly as in the Day, not in Rioting and Drunkenness, not in Chambering and Wantonness. For no Man that doth so, can with any true Delight think of the Joys of Heaven.

Take heed to your selves, lest at any time your Hearts be overcharged with Surfeiting and

1 [sic cre]
Drunkenness, and so that Day come upon you unawares.

For, sure it is, that they who give themselves up to Intemperance, are in great Danger of dying in their Sins unrepentent of.

And the Reason of all this Caution is plain. Religion is a very serious Thing, requireth our most serious Thoughts, and the more we take delight in this Life, the less we shall think of the next, and of that Self-Denial which the Gospel hath made a Christian Duty.

The PRAYER R.

O Lord Jesus Christ, who hast loved us, and given thy self for us, give us Grace to love, and to forgive, and to do good. And that running the way of thy Commandments, we may live and die thy Servants, and find Mercy at the great Day. Amen.
Q. My good Child, know this, that thou art not able to do these Things of thy self, nor to walk in the Commandments of God, and to serve him, without his special Grace, which thou must learn at all times to call for by diligent Prayer, Let me hear therefore if thou canst say the Lord's Prayer?

A. Our Father which art in Heaven; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy Will be done in Earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this Day our daily Bread. And forgive us our Trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into Temptation, but deliver us from Evil. Amen.

Q. What desirest thou of God in this Prayer?

A. I desire my Lord God our Heavenly Father, who is the Giver of all Goodness, to send his Grace unto me, and to all People, that we may worship him, serve him, and obey him as we ought to do. And I pray unto God, that he will send us all things that be needful both for our Souls and Bodies; and that he will be merciful unto us, and forgive us our Sins; and that it will please him to save and defend us in all Dangers ghostly and bodily; and that he will keep us from all sin and wickedness, and from our ghostly Enemy, and from everlasting Death. And this I trust he will do of his Mercy and Goodness, through our Lord Jesus Christ. And therefore I say Amen. So be it.

Q. Cannot we keep the Commands of God when we know them, and the Danger of breaking them?
A. It is very sure of our selves we cannot: And it is, because People do not consider this, That there is so much Wickedness in the World. They are unable of themselves, and they will not ask Help of God.

Q. How may we be convinced, that of our selves we are unable to do these things?
A. Because the Laws of God are owned to be Holy, Just, and Good, and yet Men transgress them, though they see the Danger of doing so. So that neither the Reasonableness of the Laws, nor the Greatness of the Law-giver; neither the Threatning of the Next Life, nor the Punishments of this, are sufficient to make us obedient, without God's special Grace, which therefore we are taught at all times to pray for.

Q. May we hope that God will give us the Assistance we pray for?
A. Yes. For he hath commanded us to pray to him; he hath promised to hear and answer us; and is well-pleased with such, as being sensible of their own Misery, do come to him for Help.

Q. And what will be the Advantage of praying constantly ?

A. It will create in your Heart a true Love for God, to whom you go upon all Occasions ; and since you are to beg his Blessing upon every Work, you will undertake nothing but what you hope will please him. You will learn to be thankful your self, and teach others to own, to depend upon, and to glorifie God.

Q. What are the things we should chiefly pray for ?

A. For the Knowledge of God and his Ways. For Pardon of our Sins, and Grace to do his Will ; For his Favour and Protection, to keep us from falling.

And we have the Promise of Christ, that if we seek these Things in the first place, God will supply all our Wants.

Q. May we not pray for other Blessings ?

A. Yes. Only remember, that God alone knows what is best for us ; who hath given us this general Promise, which we should be contented with. That all things shall work together for good to those that love God, who best knows what share of Health, of Riches, of Prosperity or Success, will be good for us, to whom therefore we should submit all our Desires.

1 John 3. 22.

Who in Compassion to our Infirmities, and that the most ignorant Person may not want Words, wherein he may pray to God, he hath therefore given us a most perfect Form of Prayer, which all Christians should endeavour to understand.

Our Father which art in Heaven ;

Q. Why are we taught to begin our Prayers after this manner?

A. That we may pray with Assurance of being favourably heard. For as a Father pitieth his own Children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him.

But then, we must remember that he is in Heaven, and as the distance between Heaven and Earth is great, so is the Lord far above the Mightiest on Earth, therefore we must pray to him with great Humility.

And to him only: For to pray to any Creature, is great Sin and Folly; It is to despise our heavenly Father, to whom Christ directs us to go.

To whom we must pray, not for our selves only, but for all Estates and Conditions of Men; For we are all Brethren, and he is our Father.

Q. What do we pray for in these Words ?
A. We pray that the Greatness, and Wisdom, and Goodness of God may be so known and acknowledged, that all Men may give Glory, and Honour, and Power to him who hath created all things. And for our selves we pray that we may lead Holy Lives, that the Name of God may never be blasphemed amongst wicked Men, through our disobedience to his Laws, but that seeing our good Works, they may glorifie our Father which is in Heaven.

Thy Kingdom come.
Q. What do we pray for, when we say these Words ?
A. We pray God, that his Ways may be know[n] upon Earth, his saving Health among all Nations. To which end, we beseech him to bless the Labours of them that preach the Gospel, that the Laws of Christ may be submitted to, and his Kingdom may never be taken from us, but that he may rule in our Hearts by his Holy Spirit, and subdue all our evil Affections, so that Sin and Satan may never get the Dominion over us, but that we may come to his everlasting Kingdom.

Q. What do we desire in this Petition?

A. We pray that all Men may do their Duty in that State of Life in which the Providence of God hath placed them. And particularly, that he would give us Grace so to mortifie and forsake our own Wills and Desires, that we may love, and cheerfully obey his Laws ; that we may know his Will, and take delight in doing it ; for so the Angels of God are still disposed.

Give us this Day our daily Bread.

Q. What do we here pray for?

A. We beg of God, who knoweth what we have need of, that we may not want what is necessary for a comfortable Life : That He will bless all our honest Endeavours, and that we may never use such Ways to get a livelihood, which we know He will never bless. And thus we pray every day, to keep in our Hearts a constant Sense of our Dependance upon God’s Providence, which is our best Security.

And we only ask for Necessaries for one Day, because we are sure, that he who giveth to Day, can do so to

And forgive us our Trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us.

Q. What do we here pray for?

A. That God would be merciful unto us, and forgive us our Sins; that he would not punish us, as we justly deserve; For so he hath promised to all such as confess and forsake their sins.

For which gracious Promise, we shew our selves thankful, in freely forgiving all that have offended us.

And we pray for Pardon, and we forgive others as constantly as we ask our daily Bread, because Life it self would be a Burthen without Hopes of Mercy.

And lead us not into Temptation, but deliver us from Evil.

Q. What do we pray for in this Petition?

A. We pray that God, who only can forgive Sins, may prevent us by his Grace, that we may never force him to leave us to our selves, nor suffer us to be tempted above what we are able to bear.

For we are in the midst of an evil World, from which, and from our own evil Hearts, and from the violent Assaults of Satan, the Author of all Evil, and from eternal Death, the worst of Evils, we pray God to deliver us, and to give us Grace to keep out of the way of Temptations, as much as may be; to be careful of our Ways, and never to trust in our own Strength, but in the living God. And especially we pray, That we may never live in any known Sin.

For thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, for ever and ever.

Q. Why are these Words added to this Prayer?
A. To put us in mind, to whom we have been praying; that we may acknowledge his Power to help and defend us; For he is the King of all the World, to him we owe all the Good we have or can receive, to Him therefore we give all Honour and Glory for ever.

Amen, that is, So be it.

Q. Why do we add this to all our Prayers?
A. We do, by adding this, declare that we do assent to what hath been said, and desire with all our Hearts it may be granted.

Q. Is it expected that such as cannot Read should Pray?
A. It is an Unhappiness that People cannot read, but God forbid that should hinder them from Praying. Whoever hath Sense to know that he is a Sinner, or that he wants God’s Help, is bound to pray as well as he can.

If such a Person wants a Kindness from his Neighbour, he will know how to ask it; if he is to ask it of his Betters, he will think of doing it after a becoming manner, will wait with Patience, and receive it thankfully: Why let him so behave [sic] himself towards God, and God, who is ever pleased with the Desires of a Heart truly sensible of its Misery and Wants, will easily understand, and favourably answer his Requests.

Q. How often should we pray?

A. We should pray without ceasing, that is, we should let no Day pass without begging God’s Blessing, and giving him Thanks for his Mercies.

That we should take all Occasions of lifting up our Hearts to God for every Blessing we receive, for every Danger we escape, and for every Affliction we meet with.

Our Meals should put us in mind, That we do not live by bread alone; that therefore, His Blessing must make our Meat to do us good.

In our Business, we should remember, that it is but lost Labour to rise early and take late lest², if He bless not our Endeavours, that so [we] may pray God to speed us.

In the Morning, we should pray to God to bless our Labours, and in the

² [sic: rest]
Evenings to defend us from the Powers of Darkness; and they that do not do so, have no Reason to expect his Blessing.

Q. What else should I know concerning this Duty?
A. Only, that whenever you pray, you take care to do it with Reverence, not forgetting the Distance there is betwixt God who is in Heaven, and his needy Creatures on Earth.

And though all Postures are acceptable to God, if the Heart be right; yet the most humble will best become us miserable Sinners, when we come before the most High God.

And above all things take care that you live well, as well as pray: If any Man be a Worshipper of God, and doth his Will, him he heareth.

these Sacraments, where his Providence affords them.

By which Sacraments we Bind our selves to be God’s faithful Servants, and God obligeth himself to give us all Graces necessary to fit us for Heaven.

Q. Why are the Sacraments call’d Means of Grace ?

A. Because the Grace of God doth always accompany them, when they are Administred and Received according to the Appointment of Christ, and in Obedience to his Command.

For though they have no Virtue in themselves to save us, yet by the Blessing of Christ upon his own Ordinance, and through Faith in Him, they become Means of the greatest Comfort and Salvation to all such as receive them worthily.

Q. How do they become Means of so great Comfort ?

A. By giving every Christian an Opportunity of claiming God’s Promise of Pardon and Grace, and of applying them to Himself.

For the Sacraments are Pledges, or Securities given by Christ to his Church, to assure all his faithful Servants, that God will as certainly give them the Inward and Spiritual Grace, as they do partake of the outward and visible Sign, with Holy Dispositions and Purposes of obeying his Laws.

For by Baptism we are admitted into the Church of Christ, and have all the Blessings of the Gospel made over to us.

And the Lord’s Supper is the standing means of Reconciling us to God, when through Weakness or Temptations we have departed from Him.

Q. What is the Outward visible Sign or Form in Baptism ?

A. Water, wherein the Person is Baptised, in the Name of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Q. What is the Inward and Spiritual Grace ?

A. A Death unto Sin, and a New Birth unto Righteousness: for being by Nature born in Sin, and the Children of Wrath, we are thereby made the Children of Grace.

Q. What is required of Persons to be Baptised ?

A. Repentance, whereby they forsake Sin; And Faith, whereby they stedfastly believe the Promises of God, made to them in that Sacrament.

Q. Was the Sacrament of Baptism ordained by Christ himself ?

A. It was in these words : Go ye, and teach all Nations, baptising them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Which Command the Apostles observed ; They preached the Gospel, and as many as believed the Word, them they baptised ; By this Sacrament, adding to the Church daily such as should be saved.

Holding it Necessary to baptise with Water even Those that had received the Holy Ghost. Teaching us, that this Command of Christ, where it may be duly observed, is not to be neglected on any Account whatever.

Q. What is signified and assured to us by this outward Sign in Baptism ?

A. That as the Body is washed by Water, in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, so is the Soul, Thus dedicated to God, cleansed from all its Sins, by the blood of Christ, the Person baptised is made a visible Member of Christ’s Church, and hath thereby a Right to many great and precious Promises.
Q. What are the Promises and Blessings, which by Baptism we have a Right to?
A. That though we were born in Sin, yet God will deal with us, as if we were innocent.

That having by Nature no Right to Heaven and Happiness, He doth now give us a Title to both.

And because of our selves we are not able to walk and to please God, he doth in Baptism give us his Holy Spirit to enable us both to know and to do our Duty.

Which Good Spirit, if we do not grieve him, will continue to guide and to assist us unto our Lives end, dispose us to Holiness, help us to overcome our spiritual Enemies, and bring us to Heaven.

Ephes. 4. 30.

Q. Have all persons a Title to these Blessings, who have been rightly Baptised?
A. Yes; but then this Title may be lost, if it is not looked after when you come to Years of Discretion; that is, if you do not perform what was promised for you.

Q. Why then was not our Baptism deferred, until we came to Years of Discretion?
A. Because it was ever esteemed a great Blessing to be sanctified, that is, dedicated to God as soon as might be, that by his good Spirit, he might dispose us to Holiness, and by his good Angels, which are appointed to minister to them, which shall be Heirs of Salvation, guard us from the Attempts of evil Spirits.

Therefore were Children of the Jews received into Covenant at eight Days old; and Jesus Christ saith, That of such is the Kingdom, that is, the Church of God.

And therefore are Children of Christian Parents Baptised, because the Promises are to them, as well as to their Parents; and it is with good Reason supposed, that when they come to know what Privileges they have a Right to, they will look after, and strive to obtain them.

Q. Since then I am come to Age, what must I do to be sure of these Blessings?

A. You must endeavour to understand and perform those necessary things which are required of all Persons before they are baptised, and which were promised in your Name. These are Repentance, and Faith, without which Baptism will not profit you.

Q. What doth the Promise of Repentance bind me to?

A. You are bound to forsake all wicked Courses; To deny all Ungodliness and Worldly Lusts; Not to consent to Known Sin, but to serve God to the best of your Knowledge and Power, doing what be hath commanded, and avoiding what be hath forbidden: For so every dutiful Child behaves

Q. What is that Faith into which I was Baptised, and which I am bound to take upon me self?

A. You are bound to Receive the Gospel of Jesus Christ, as that which containeth the whole Will of God necessary to be known by Men.

In which Gospel is made known to us the Way by which God will save us, that is, By Faith in Jesus Christ, who came into the World to save sinners; Mar. 16. 16. Who died for our Sins, and rose again for our Justification; 1 Tim. 1. 15. And hath commanded us to follow his Steps, that as he died and rose again for us, so should we that are baptised die from Sin, and rise again unto Righteousness.

Which if you strive to do, then may you put your whole Trust and Confidence in Jesus Christ; Depend upon God’s Promise of Pardon, Favour and Assistance, and may be well assured that you are in a State of Salvation, and in the Way to Heaven.

Q. WHY was the Sacrament of the Lord’s Supper ordained ?
A. For the continual Remembrance of the Sacrifice of the Death of Christ, and of the Benefits which we receive thereby.
Q. What is the Outward Part or Sign of the Lord’s Supper ?
A. Bread and Wine which the Lord hath commanded to be received.
Q. What is the Inward Part, or thing signified ?
A. The Body and Blood of Christ, which are verily, and indeed taken, and received by the Faithful in the Lord’s Supper.
Q. What are the Benefits whereof we are Partakers thereby ?
A. The strengthening and refreshing of our Souls, by the Body and Blood of Christ, as our Bodies are by the Bread and Wine.

Q. What is required of them who come to the Lord’s Supper?

A. To examine themselves, whether they Repent them truly of their former Sins, stedfastly purposing to lead a new Life; have a lively Faith in God’s Mercies, through Christ, with a thankful Remembrance of his Death, and to be in Charity with all Men.

Q. When was the Sacrament of the Lord’s Supper ordained by Christ?

A. The same Night in which he was betrayed, when he took Bread, and having given thanks, He brake it, and said, Take, Eat, This is my Body which is broken for you, This do in Remembrance of me. After the same manner also, He took the Cup, when He had supped, saying, this Cup is the New Testament in my Blood, This do ye as oft as ye Drink it in Remembrance of me. For as oft as ye Eat this Bread, and Drink this Cup, ye do shew the Lord’s Death till he come. 1 Cor. 11. 23, &c.

Q. What are we to learn from these Words of the Apostle?

A. That it is our Duty to keep up a continual Remembrance of the Death of Christ, whereby alone we obtain Remission of our Sins, Luke 22. 19.

That to do this, we are to meet together, (as often as God’s Minister giveth us notice) to declare and represent His Death, by breaking Bread, and pouring out Wine, and giving Thanks to God, for sending his Son to teach us our Duty, and to die for our Sins.

That we are to eat that Bread, and drink that Wine, in token, that we seriously purpose, and take this Sacrament upon it, to continue Christ’s faithful Servants, by doing His Will to the best of our Power.

By all which, we acknowledge our own sad and sinful Condition, and that we have no Hopes, but in the Merits of Christ; But that we believe His Death to be a full, perfect, and sufficient Sacrifice, Oration, and Satisfaction, for the Sins of the whole World.

_Q. What Benefits may we hope for, by Remembering the Death of Christ after this Religious Manner ?

_A. We may expect and depend upon the Pardon of all our Sins, Rom. 5. 10. and Grace and Strength to do our Duty, and eternal Happiness when we die. And we may as certainly expect these Benefits, as we can hope for Strength and Refreshment from Food. For God, who spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things ? Rom. 8. 32.

_Q. Do all that go to the Lord’s Table find there these Benefits ?

_A. No. But they only who receive this Sacrament worthily.

Q. How must we prepare our selves to receive it worthily?
A. The Church, following the Apostles Rule, giveth you this short and plain Direction. You must examine your self, concerning your Repentance, your Faith, and your Charity.

Q. How must we examine our selves concerning our Repentance?
A. You must first examine your Heart, whether you know what a Sinful, Helpless Creature you are, and liable to the Wrath of God; for then you will see the Necessity and the Blessing of a Redeemer. And not till then; Because, they that be whole need not a Physician, but they that be sick.

Then see whether the great Danger you are in, will dispose you to consider your Ways, to confess your Sins to God, to lay before him your Want and your Desire of Mercy, and to beseech Him, as for your Life, to pardon you. This is what is required of you, and this you will do, if you remember That the Wages of Sin is Death, Rom. 6. 23. even Death eternal, where it is not Repented of.

You must therefore in the last place, examin your self whether you Resolve to amend your Ways for the time to come, stedfastly purposing to lead a New Life, And to bring forth Fruits meet for Repentance, Matth. 3. 8.

Q. How must I examin my self concerning my Faith?
A. You must consider whether you do indeed Believe the Gospel; that Christ is in

If you believe these things, and resolve to Live like one who doth so, Never looking upon your own Works, but upon the Mercy of God in Jesus Christ, giving hearty Thanks to God for his Death, then is your Faith such as will save you.

Q. How must I examin my self concerning my Charity ?
A. You must examin your Heart, whether you have such a good Will towards all Men as becometh Brethren; For we are all of one Family, Partakers of the same Bread; we therefore ought to be of one Mind, and of one Soul, ready to Love, to Help, and to Pray for one another.

Whether you are willing to give Satisfaction, and to ask Pardon of such as may have taken Offence at your Words or Actions, or have been injured by you.

Ready to forgive such as bare injured you, as you expect Forgiveness of your Offences at God's Hand.

This is what Jesus Christ hath expressly required, Matth. 5. 23. of all such as come to offer themselves or their Prayers to God, and then he will accept their Sacrifice.

If a Man is sensible of his Sins and Weaknesses, and sorry for them.

If he desires and purposes in his Heart to keep God’s Commandments to the Best of his Knowledge and Power.

And, trusting in God for Grace and Assistance, goeth to the Lord’s Supper to obtain them; Such a Person will receive that Sacrament to his Great and Endless Comfort.

Q. How comes it then, that so many neglect a Duty so plain and easie, and yet so necessary and comfortable ?

A. Because there are Many who think not of their Souls, or of a World to come.

There are Many who know they must Repent, that is, Change their Way of Living, upon their going to the Sacrament, but think That too great a Trouble.

And there are very many who purpose to Reform, but cannot resolve to begin, and too often defer it, till ’tis too late to profit them.

These are, for the most part, the true Reasons, whatever else is pretended, why so many turn their Backs upon this Holy Sacrament.

A. Yes. The Church supposes they may, and Directs such Persons what to do: *They are to go to some Minister of God’s Word, and open their Grief: And if they are in earnest, there is no doubt but they may receive Satisfaction. So that every Man may know, whether his not going to the Sacrament proceeds from a Real Scruple, or from the Corruption of a Deceitful Heart. The PRAYER.

_Almighty God, who gavest thine only Son Jesus Christ to suffer Death upon the Cross for our Redemption, give us Grace to keep up the Remembrance of this great Mercy, until his coming again. Grant that we may never be ashamed to Confess the Faith of Christ crucified; That we may never despise the Blessings he hath Purchased for us, nor the means of Grace which he hath Ordained; which we most humbly beg for the sake of the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen._

It is for want of Consideration, that any Person or Christian Family neglect to pray daily to God; the most Unlearned see that they depend upon his Providence; that they cannot prosper without his Blessing; That they can do no good thing without his Grace or Assistance; That they can live no longer than He pleaseth, and that when they dye they must be Miserable or Happy, just as He shall judge they deserve to be.

These are the Reasons which should prevail with every Person to Pray constantly for Pardon and Peace; for Grace to do the Will of God; for His Blessing and Protection; for a Happy Death, and for a Joyful Resurrection.

God forbid it should be so with any of you, after you know the Great Danger of living without God in the World. And the Great Happiness of being under his Protection.

Men may think to thrive by their own Industry, by the help of Friends, by what their Forefathers have left them; but all these will not do without God’s Blessing, for except the Lord build the House, they labour in vain that build it.

We may hope that good Advice, our own Reason, the fear of the Laws, the care of our Reputation, will keep us, that Sin and Hell shall not get the Dominion over us; but then we do not consider that many, who have had all these Helps, are now for ever undone, because they did not beg God’s Grace, without which nothing can save us from Ruin.

For there is no wickedness, which any other Person hath fall’n into, There is no Misfortune, no Misery, but we are all liable to the same, and ’tis God’s Goodness that any of us are delivered. And therefore it is necessary, above all things, that we should secure the Favour of God.

And they that do so, by worshipping Him daily, will find great Comfort here, and an unspeakable Reward hereafter; For God will give His Angels charge concerning them. He will deliver them from Evil. He will give them new Hearts, and direct them in the Way they should go, and bring them to everlasting Life. And in the mean time whatever befalleth them shall be for their Good at the last, and in this Belief they shall always be easie.

Now all such as will not serve God to the best of their Knowledge, and the Means afforded them, will be left without Excuse. Here are plain and short Instructions and Prayers in your own Language, put into your Hands. Such as may be used where any one in a Family can read; such as may be learned by Heart in a few Days by them that cannot read, and yet such as by God’s Blessing may help to make you a Religious People, and keep you in His Favour.

That therefore which I do earnestly beg of all Persons within my Diocese, into whose Hands this small Book shall come, is this —— That they would learn to say distinctly the Two First Prayers for Morning and Evening in Private, and use them daily. This is what I shall expressly require of all that come to be confirmed, For how can they promise to walk in the Commandments of God, who will not learn to ask His Grace by diligent Prayer, without which we can do no good thing?

In every Family where there is one that can read, I do hope that the Two Family Prayers will be constantly used. And I make no question but the Clergy, who are truly concerned for the Souls of their People, will bring many well disposed Persons that cannot read, to learn, and to use them; for they will consider the terrible words of the Prophet. Pour out thy wrath upon the Families that have not called upon thy Name. Jer. 10. 25.

The Rest of the Instructions and Devotions are so necessary, and yet so short and plain, that I persuade myself they will be made use of by most that can read, and that many good People will read Prayers for particular Persons.

Consider the Danger of going into an evil World without God's Blessing, and then you will not neglect to pray for His Grace and protection every Morning.

Morning Prayer.

O Lord, my Maker and Redeemer, I thank thee for all thy Mercies, and especially that I am a Christian, and in the way of Salvation; Lord suffer me not to go astray, or bring me back by such means as to thee shall seem meet.

Let thy Grace, which is sufficient, secure me from the Temptations of the World, the Flesh, and the Devil; that I may not follow, nor be led by them.

Let my Belief of thy infinite Power, and Justice, and Goodness, make me to Fear, and to Love, and to put my whole Trust in thee.

Let the goodness of thy Commands incline me in all things to obey thy Plain and short Directions and Prayers.

Blessed Will, that I may Love my Neighbour as my self; and forgive, and live in Charity with all the World.

That I may obey such as have the Rule over me; be Just in all my Dealings; True and Faithful in my Words and Promises.

That I may be Temperate, Sober, and Chast; lead an Honest and a Godly Life; be content with my Condition, and never desire to better it by unjust ways.

The Lord Preserve me from all Evil. From Pride, and Malice, and Idleness, and Uncleanness; from Deceit, and Worldly mindedness, and from Lying and Slandering.

I beseech God that his Grace may ever be with me, to keep me from all Thoughts, Words, and Actions that I should have cause to repent of.

Defend me in all Dangers comfort me in all Afflictions, direct me when I know not what to do, and bring me in His Good Time to His Heavenly Kingdom, for Jesus Christ’s sake.

Plain and short Directions and Prayers.

Lord, forgive me, and deliver me from those Judgments which my Sins deserve.
Give me Grace never to consent to any known wickedness, nor ever to grieve thy Holy Spirit by which I am sanctified.

Let me see the danger of Sin, that I may flee from it, that I may strive against it, that it may never be my Ruin.

Enlighten my Soul with saving truth, correct me in Mercy when I grow careless of my Salvation. Make me ever mindful of my latter end. From sudden and from eternal Death good Lord deliver me.

Preserve me from the Power and Malice of the Devil: Grant me a quiet Sleep, a happy Death, and a joyful Resurrection, for Jesus Christ’s sake. Amen.

Morning Prayer for a Family.

Let one read or say devoutly what followeth, the rest of the Family attending.

The Lord hath brought us safe to the beginning of this Day, let us therefore give thanks for this, and for all his Mercies.

Let us Pray that we may live in the Fear of God, and continue in Love and Charity with our Neighbours.

That his Holy Spirit may direct and rule our Hearts, teaching us what we ought to do, and what to avoid.

That the Grace of God may ever be with us, to support us in all dangers, and carry us through all Temptations.

That the Lord may bless all our honest Endeavours, and make us content with what his Providence shall order for us.

And that we may continue his faithful Servants unto our lives end.

For all which Blessings let us devoutly Pray.

O GOD, by whom the whole World is governed and preserved, We give thee humble thanks for thy Fatherly Care over us ; beseeching thee to make us truly sensible of thy Mercies, and thankful for them.
Plain and short Directions and Prayers.

Give us grace that we may walk as in thy sight, making a Conscience of our Ways, and fearing to offend Thee, may never fall into the Sins we have repented of.

Enable us to resist the Temptations of the World, the Flesh, and the Devil; To follow the Motions of thy good Spirit; To be Serious and Holy in our Lives, True and Just in our Dealings, Watchful over our Thoughts, Words, and Actions; Diligent in our Business, and Temperate in all things.

And because we cannot be safe without thy Succour, defend us, we beseech thee, from all dangers both of Body and Soul.

Make us ever sensible that we depend upon thee, that in all our Necessities we may look up to thee for Help. And the Gracious God give us what is needful for us, and with all give us contented Minds.

Give us the Blessings of this Life, and Grace not to abuse them; but above all things give us the Blessings of the World to come, for Jesus Christ’s sake.

Hear us, O God, not according to our weak Understanding, but according to the full Meaning of that Form of Words which Jesus Christ hath taught us.

By the Favour of God we are come to the evening of this Day; and we are so much nearer our latter end.

Let us seriously consider this, and pray God to fit us for the Hour of Death.

Let us with Penitent Hearts beseech him to pardon our Sins; and to deliver us from the Evils which we have justly deserved.

Let us resolve to amend where we have done amiss, and pray God that his Grace may ever be with us.

THE Lord, who hath blesseth 1 one Day in seven, blesseth all those that keep it Holy, and very terrible have been his Judgments upon them that have profaned it.

It is your Duty, therefore, on this good Day, to lay aside, as much as possible, all worldly Business, all worldly Thoughts, all worldly Pleasures, that you may Honour your Creator to the best of your Power. By owing your dependence upon him; by hearing his Word and his Commands; By asking his Blessings, and giving him thanks for his Favours.

If then it is our Interest and our Happiness to serve God, it is our Duty to be at His House before his Service begins; To shew that we fear His Majesty, and dare not offer Him a Lame Sacrifice, to shew that we do indeed desire his Blessing, and take delight in serving him.

When therefore you come into the House of God, and first Kneel down, say secretly this short Prayer.

A short Prayer at your coming into Church.

May the good Spirit of God dispose me unto and assist me in his Service; The Lord give us all a true and lively Sense of our Wants, and of His Mercy and Presence amongst us, that we may serve him with our Hearts as well as with our Bodies, and that our Prayers may be heard for the sake of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

After this attend diligently to what is said and pray’d for; remembering that they are your Prayers which are offered up to God, but that you have no share in them if you do not mind what is asked in your Name.

That your Heart may go along with your Prayers, say softly, Amen, so be it, to every Petition. This is what the most unlearned may do, and it may be the most Learned cannot do better to keep their Minds intent upon what they are about.

When you confess your Sins, do it with great seriousness and concern, remembering that you are for ever undone, if you are not forgiven. And then hear with Comfort upon what Conditions God will Pardon you; If you repent and believe the Gospel, you are sure to be forgiven, for you have it declared by one who hath this Commission from Christ himself. Job. 20. 23. Whosoever Sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them, and
Plain and short Directions and Prayers.

When the Word of God is read or preached be careful to mind it, that you may know your Duty and the Reward of doing it; That you may observe the way of God’s dealing with Mankind, in punishing the Wicked, and in protecting and rewarding the Righteous; That you may know the manner of our Redemption, and the great Love of God in bringing it to pass; That you may see the Dangers you are liable to, and the Blessedness that is set before you, ever remembering that Faith, without which we cannot please God, cometh by Hearing, and Hearing by the Word of God. Rom. 10. 17.

And be sure to behave your self with great Reverence and Devotion, while you are in the House and Presence of God; for if when you should be on your Knees, asking God’s Pardon and Blessings, or standing to Praise the Creator of Heaven and Earth, if instead of doing so, you sit and sleep away the time, or carelessly gaze and think of other Matters, then will you return from God’s House with a Curse, and not with a Blessing.

And yet the very best of us, after all our care, have cause to beg pardon even for the Faults of our Devotions. Therefore before you rise from your Knees, say privately this short Prayer.

O Lord, who hast consecrated this good Day to thy Service, give us Grace so to observe it, that it may be the Beginning of a happy Week to us; and that none of thy Judgments may fall upon us for profaning it. Fix in our Hearts this great Truth that here we have no abiding Place, that we may seriously and timely provide for another Life: and grant that this great concern may make us very desirous to learn our Duty, and to do what thou requirest of us. And blessed be God that we have Churches to go to, that we have time to serve our Creator, that we have Pastors to teach us. The Lord prosper their Labours, and give us Grace to profit by them, that they and we may enjoy an everlasting Sabbath with thy Saints in Heaven, for Jesus Christ’s sake. Amen.

That God is Good, and to be loved and worshipped, we are convinced from His care of the whole Creation.

For his tender Mercies are over all his Works, Psal. 145. 9. Therefore have his Creatures the comfort of the Rain and Sun, of Food and Shelter; the Earth yields its increase, and the Seas are stored with Creatures innumerable.

In the Hand of God are these and all other Blessings, which he witholds or giveth according to his good Pleasure, to teach us that we wholly depend on Him; That Man liveth not by Bread alone, nor by his own Industry, but by the Providence of God, who ordereth all Conditions of Life for the best for those that cannot chuse for themselves.

And if He suffers some to be Poor, it is because that Condition is best for them now; but he will make them a great Amends in the next World, for what they want in this, if they will be Content and Honest, neither murmur at their own Lot, nor Envy that of others.

When God giveth Riches, it is not to make them an occasion of our Ruin, but to try our Vertue; for if we are not high Minded, if we trust not in uncertain Riches, but in the living God; if we do good with them, and readily distribute to the Necessities of others, then are Riches a real Blessing, and help to bring us to eternal Life, 1 Tim. 6. 17.

Short and Plain Directions for the Worthy Receiving of the Lord’s-Supper.

WHEN Notice is given that the Lord’s Supper is to be Administered, resolve not to turn your back upon it.

Because Jesus Christ hath commanded us, Thus to keep up the Remembrance of his Death. Luke 22. 19.

And because this is the only Comfort of Sinners. For through faith in his Blood we obtain the Pardon of our Sins, and are made Partakers of the Kingdom of Heaven.

But then you must consider how you may receive this Sacrament worthily.

And, because it may be you have no other helps besides the Direction given when you have Notice of the Sacrament, you should hearken diligently to that Exhortation, by which you are fully taught the way and means of preparing your self for the Lord’s Table.

And then seriously consider with your self,

1. Whether in truth you desire and will do your best, to save your Soul.
2. Whether you resolve not to do any thing, which your own Conscience, or God’s Word forbid you.
[20] 3. Whether you will strive against those Sins which you are most apt to fall into, by avoiding Temptations, and praying for Grace to overcome them.

4. Whether you will make what satisfaction you can to such as have reason to complain of you, or have been injured by you.

5. Whether you are ready to forgive, and Love, and do good to others, since God is so good and kind to you.

6. And lastly, whether you wholly depend upon the Mercy of God for the sake of Christ’s Death, and are thankful for it.

Now, if you find your Heart thus disposed, then in God’s name go to the Sacrament.

But be sure to mind all that is said and done there; and that will teach you your Duty, and help to make you devout.

When therefore you are exhorted to remember the Poor, and a Collection is made for them, hear what great Promises God hath made to such as are Charitable; and resolve to give something according to your Ability, and be confident it will not be lost.

Let your Heart go along with all the Prayers, and softly say Amen to every Petition, and then they are truly your Prayers, and this will keep your Thoughts from wandering. When you hear how Divine and Comfortable a thing it is to receive this Sacrament worthily, and how dangerous it is to receive unworthily; lift up your Hearts, and pray God to Pardon your Infirmities, and what is wanting in your Preparations.

When you are called upon to make your Humble Confession to Almighty

1 [sic: creid]
Plain and short Directions and Prayers.

God, be sure to let your whole Heart go along with the Minister; and humbly pray that you may have a share in that Pardon which is then pronounced.

When the comforatable Words of Christ and his Apostles, to such as truly turn unto God, are read, think what a Mercy it is, that God will forgive and receive us into Favour upon such gracious Terms, that the greatest Sinner needs not despair of Favour.

When you declare that you do not presume to come to the Lord’s Table, trusting in your own Righteousness, but in God’s great Mercy; say this with much seriousness, and your deep Humility will make amends for many Imperfections.

When God’s Minister breaketh the Bread, and poureth out the Wine and Blesseth them, let them put you in Remembrance of Christ’s Body broken, and his Blood shed upon the Cross for our Redemption; and pray that they may be a Means of conveying unto your Soul all the Benefits of his precious Death.

And when you Receive the Bread and Wine, be sure to mind what is said to you, and say Amen to it. And pray God to enable you to Renounce the Devil and all his works, constantly to believe God’s Holy Word, and obediently to keep his Commandments; which, at your Baptism, you vow’d to do. When all have Received, and you have offered your Soul and Body to God, as your reasonable Sacrifice, then Remember that you are bought with the Price of Christ’s blood, and God forbid that you should forsake the Service of Him who hath so dearly purchased you.

ATHANKSGIVING
To be said after the Sacrament, and at other times.

O Lord and Heavenly Father, I am not worthy of the least of all the Mercies which thou hast shewed thy Servant, for I wholly depend upon thee; therefore I do most humbly thank thee for all thy Favours, thy continual care over me, thy Patience towards me, thy Fatherly Corrections, thy Merciful Deliverances:
But above all, for the unspeakable Benefits of the Death of Christ. O Lord preserve in my Soul a lively Sense and Remembrance of all thy Blessings, that I may think of thy Goodness, that I may still taste of thy Kindness, and that I may continue in thy Favour, and under the Direction of thy Good Spirit, unto my lives end. 1. First. To live in the Fear of God, that you may not consent to known Iniquity.

This was David’s rule, Psalm 19. 9. I have set God always before me, therefore I shall not fall. That is, he ever had it in his Mind that God was still Present with him, Saw all his actions, Heard all his Words, and Knew the very Thoughts of his Heart.

Now this is what you must do, and often think thus with your self; Is not this Action against the Laws of God? Will not this displease Him who seeth all I do, and who will call me to an Account, if I do amiss? Will not this injure my Neighbour? Is this a Life fit for a Christian to lead? Is this Company fit for a good Christian to Keep? &c. And this is to live in the Fear of God.

2. Secondly, But if notwithstanding this care you fall into Sin, your next concern must be to repent of it immediately.

And do not put off your Repentance in hopes that you have time enough to leave your Sins, and to make your Peace with God; for this has been the Ruin of most of such as have perished in their Sins.

But know for a Truth that it is the Mere Favour of God that any Man living repents and forsakes his Sins, that you can only do so when he pleaseth, and the longer you continue in Sin, the more Desperate, the more Careless, and the more Hardened you’ll grow, and more unfit for God’s Favour. This therefore was David’s Practice, I made hast, and delayed not to keep thy Commandments, Psal. 119. 60.

3. Thirdly, Be careful at all times to own your Dependance upon God, by Praying to Him for what you want, and giving Him thanks for what you receive.

And do not think that want of Learning will excuse you from doing this. There is no Man who can lift up his Heart to God, but can Pray Him to forgive This Sin ; To Bless This Undertaking ; To Bless his Children and his Labours ; To deliver

Plain and short Directions for such as are Sick, or under any other Affliction.

When you are visited with Sickness, or any other Affliction, you should presently conclude, This is the Hand of God: For nothing can befall us without his special leave. Mat. 10. 30.

Then think with your self, God cannot be pleased with the Miseries of his poor Creatures, therefore this Affliction must be designed for my good.

I will therefore hear what the Lord will say to me; what he meaneth by this Visitation.

And your first care must be, to see wherein you have offended God, that you may ask His Pardon, and obtain His Favour, without which, whether you live or dye, you will be miserable.

For consider what a fearful thing it is to fall into the Hands of the living God, who can destroy both Body and Soul in Hell, where the Worm dieth not, and the Fire is not quenched.
Plain and short Directions and Prayers.

You may indeed strive to put these thoughts out of your Mind; but Death will come, and a Judgment will follow, and you will be for ever miserable, whether you think of these things or not, if you dye in your Sins unrepented of.

And therefore for your Souls sake, be advised to consider your ways while you have Life and Breath; and if ever you have been guilty of Adultery, or Fornication, or Uncleanness, or Hatred, or Wrath, or Strife, or Sedition, or Drunkenness; Remember what the Scripture saith, They who do such things shall not inherit the Kingdom of God. Gal. 5. 19.

Judge therefore your self that you may not be condemn’d of the Lord. Cry to God for Pardon, Resolve to amend where you have done amiss, To Live more carefully, to avoid Temptations, and to pray constantly to God for Grace to overcome them.

And if you have wronged any Man, by Deceit, by Hard Bargains, by Force, or taking Advantage of the Necessities of your Poor Brother, this is the time to make him amends, if it is in your Power; or else Hope for no Favour from God. 1 Thess. 4. 3.

And, as you expect Favour from Him, be ready to forgive all that have injured you.

If you have tempted others to Sin, do what you can to persuade them to Repentance; tell them how much you are afflicted for your Sins, and that this will be their own Case, unless they dye suddenly, or are hardened through the deceitfulness of Sin, both which are dreadful Judgments indeed.

If you have neglected the Means of Grace, by not going constantly to God’s House, to hear his Word, to Receive the Holy Sacrament, to pray for his Blessing, and to give Him Thanks for His Mercies, confess your Offences, and resolve if you live to become a New Man.

But whether you live or dye, endeavour by all means to make your Peace with God ; and consider what a Mercy it is that you have time and warning to do so ; and this will help you to take your Affliction patiently ; For the severest Pains are not so terrible to a Sinner as a Sudden Death.

Let neither the Greatness nor the Number of your Offences make you despair of Mercy ; for if you turn to God with all your Heart, He will receive you. Joh. 6. 37.

Consider, that no Man on Earth can expect Pardon for his own sake, but only for the sake of Jesus Christ, who came into the World to save Sinners ; even the greatest of Sinners. And there is Joy in the Presence of God over one Sinner that repenteth. So that you may say with Job, Though he kill me, yet will I trust in him, Job. 13. 15.

Only be very careful that you do not trust in God’s Mercy without a true Sorrow for your Sins, and a Sincere purpose of Amendment. And do not think that you are safe because the World knoweth no ill of you, for God knoweth your Heart. Pray therefore to Him to give you a true Sense of your Errors, and Grace to repent of them, and Faith in Jesus Christ, that for his sake your Sins may be forgiven, and your Pardon sealed.

And be sure to send for the Minister of God, that He may Pray for and instruct you. This is the Apostle’s Advice, and you may look for a Blessing upon his Prayers.

If God hath Blessed you with Goods honestly gotten, shew your Thankfulness to Him, by giving cheerfully, and according to your Ability, to the Poor.

When you make your Will, let the Laws and a good Conscience direct you, that after your Death, there may be as little strife as possible amongst your Relations.

If you are Poor, and leave a Poor Family behind you, let not that afflict you; but remember, that although You die, yet the Goodness of God endureth for ever. Only Pray both for your self and them, that God may give you the Blessings of the next Life, though he thinks fit to deny you the Good things of this.

If your Affliction should continue long, do not however send to the Devil for Help, that is, To such as make use of Charms. Rather think with your self, that God knoweth best how long to chasten you; And that it is good that a Man should both hope and quietly wait for the Salvation of the Lord. Lam. 3. 26.

Therefore be most earnest with God for Grace, that you may for the time to come live a Sober, a Righteous, and a Godly Life.

To this end put on Holy Resolutions of Praying daily for Grace and Strength: Of observing the Lord’s Day; Of obeying the Good Motions of Gods Spirit; Of never going against your Conscience, or the known Laws of God; Of striving against those Sins which you have formerly been guilty of, and of repenting speedily of those Sins which through frailty you fall into.

And then, whenever God shall call for you, you may Hope for a Happy Death, and expect with assurance a Blessed Resurrection.

A Prayer in time of Affliction.

A almighty God, the Author of Life and Death, I do submit my Will to thine, stedfastly believing that all thy Corrections are the Effects of thy Love, by which we are convinced that nothing in Heaven or on Earth can save us besides thee. Grant, O Lord, that what I now suffer may help forward my Salvation. Help me to know mine Offences, to confess my Sins unto thee, to abhors the Evil of my ways, and to resolve upon a new Life, that thou may’st have Mercy upon me, and save my Soul. Lord, increase my Faith, that I may believe thy Promise of Pardon and Peace to penitent Sinners; confirm my Love to thee and to all Mankind, that when I dye, I may dye in perfect Charity; deal with me in this mine Affliction, as to thee seems most meet, only deliver me not into the bitter Pains of eternal Death, for Jesus Christ’s sake. Amen.

The END.
